

Patrolman Hugh L. Reilly of the Northwestern District was before the Board to explain the loss by him of his official pistol in pursuing a crowd of disorderly negroes July 28, 1910.

From the statement made by Patrolman Reilly the Board was convinced that the pistol was lost while the officer was performing police duty and that the said loss was not through any carelessness on the part of the officer.

Patrolman Reilly was therefore relieved from any responsibility in the premises.
