NOTICE TO PUBLIC

SAMUEL ROSEN'S Shoe Repairing Shop, 327 High St., Chestertown, is reopened by his son MORRIS ROSEN.

All persons having bills against my father, Samuel Rosen, are asked to present the same at once so we can attend to them.

All persons owing for shoes or repairs are urged to make payment of same at once as my mother and her five children are in Russia in great distress and in need of money.

MORRIS ROSEN.

HAND OF DEATH

Samuel Lee Merchant, aged 52, died suddenly at his home, near Galena, Friday morning, April 5, at 5 o'clock, of heart trouble.

Mr. Merchant suffered a broken collar bone on January 18th, and since that time had not been real well but was not considered ill and the day before his death had motored to Wilmington, and on his return had visited Millington in the evening. When he arose, however, Friday morning, he complained of not feeling well and died before medical aid could reach him.

He was a son of the late Noah C. and Mary Merchant, of Queen Anne's county, and spent his boyhood days in that county, later engaging in farming there. He remained in agricultural pursuits in that county until about ten years ago when he moved to Millington, where he resided a short time, and later took up farming near Galena, where he died.

In young manhood he married Miss Sallie Burns, of Queen Anne's, who survived him with one daughter, Miss Clara Lee Merchant. He also leaves four sisters and five brothers, namely: Mrs. Reba Lane and Mrs. Sallie Rickards, of Templeville; Mrs. Susie Skinner, of near Sudlersville, and Mrs. Mary E. Jewell, of Price, that county; Messrs. Frank and Charles Merchant, of Denver, Colo.; William Merchant, of near Centreville; John Merchant, of near Galena, and former sheriff, Alfred Merchant, of Church Hill.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, April 18, at 2 o'clock, at his late residence, Rev. A. P. Prettyman officiating. Interment was in Sudlersville Cemetery.

Nathaniel Thornton Hynson, native and former resident of Kent county, died at his home in Washington, D. C., Sunday, after a long illness. The deceased was a son of the late Nathaniel T. and Anna Medford Hynson and husband of Lucy Tiffey Hynson.

Wm. T. Hearn died in Wilmington last Saturday. He leaves a widow and six children. His remains were brought to Chestertown Tuesday and interred in Chester Cemetery from the home of Thomas A. Clements, on Mill street, Rev. G. F. Farring officiating.

Rev. Wm. H. Kenney, a recent pastor of Church Hill M. E. Church, and nephew of Mrs. W. C. Peregoy, of this town, died last Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Horace E. Evans, of Selbyville, Del.

A Thought Film of Real Life

"Parentage"

—A MESSAGE—

"PARENTAGE" asks more big questions of vital appeal to YOU than any film you ever saw. Sounding a deep human note—brim full of dramatic moments—"PARENTAGE" will pull on your heart strings like a bell rope.

In it you will recognise folks of every-day life—like you and your neighbors—and will find much to inspire, interest and instruct. It is forceful, yet clean, wholesome and entertaining. See it, then YOU will recommend it.

A Heart Drama of Life, Love and Home.
It Makes You Think—It Makes You Laugh.

COMING—Friday, May 3, Viola Dana in "Blue Jeans."

21 MEN GO FROM KENT

The mobilization of the second contingent of the National Army will begin on April 29, and the boys will be in camp in two weeks. The new draft calls for 800,000 men and they will be called at the rate of 150,000 a month. Maryland's quota on the first call is 2,120, and Kent's 21.

With these men at Camp Meade and considering the men sent from the State in the original draft, Maryland's share in the new National Army will be more than 10,000 men, 4,000 of these going from Baltimore. The original contingent was 7,090 plus 10 per cent., or about 8,000.

In communication to the local exemption board Adjutant General Warfield writes the calls for additional men will be "frequent and numerous."

The names of the twenty-one Kent county boys included in the present call, and who are notified to report in Chestertown for entrainment for Camp Meade, Monday, April 29, at 7 o'clock a. m., are as follows:

William Sterling Kelley, Rock Hall.
Albert L. Wheat, Chestertown.
Samuel W. Elburn, Chestertown No. 2.
Carroll O. Creighton, Rock Hall.
Norman V. Collison, Rock Hall.
Nathan Kosover, Baltimore.
Frank L. Newnam, Massey.
William E. Cornelius, Lynch.
J. Franklin Stevens, Millington.
Clarence Lulk, Betterton.
Walter Gilbert Darrell, Massey.
Charles D. Price, Chestertown No. 2.
Edw. Ellsworth Brown, Chestertown.
Albert L. Leary, Rock Hall.
Wm. H. Worden, Jr., Chestertown.
Curtis O. McClain, Chestertown.
Clarence R. Sutton, Betterton.
Nathan S. Chaires, Chestertown No. 3.
Columbus E. Beck, Rock Hall.
John Berg, Rock Hall.
Robert T. Hynson, Rock Hall.

Another draft call for 49,843 men has been made, mobilization to take place May 1 to 10. Maryland's quota is 453 and of that number Kent will furnish 5.

L. W. WICKES TO QUIT THE TAX COMMISSION

Lewin W. Wickes, Democratic member of the State Tax Commission, will not seek reappointment when his term expires on May 1st. next. He will return permanently to Chestertown and will resume the practice of law.

Governor Harrington is aware of Mr. Wickes' intention to retire from the commission. Under the law Mr. Wickes successor must be a resident of the Eastern Shore. His salary is $5,000 per annum.

It is understood that Mr. Wickes' reason for declining to seek a reappointment is his desire to return to his home at Chestertown and to devote his entire time to the practice of law. In addition, he realizes that because of the high cost of living in the city he is not able to add to his savings at a time of life when he must make all provision possible for the future. He is the owner of two or three farms in Kent county which also demand the constant attention which he cannot give them because of his absence.

Mr. Wickes' became a member of the State Tax Commission in 1914, when that body was created. His name appeared in the bill together with the names of former Senator Gorman and Oscar Lesser, and has made good.
