The Grand Jury brought in their report as follows and Court adjourned:

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent County, State of Maryland.

Gentlemen: We, the Grand Jury, drawn for the April Term of Court, 1918, respectfully submit our report as follows:

We have been in session three days, have examined four constables and thirty-two witnesses, issued four summons, have made seven presentments and found seven true bills.

We have also inspected the jail and premises and find same clean and well-kept throughout. Certain repair work, however, needs attention including the lock to an important cell, two iron grates in two heating flues through which prisoners can now crawl from one cell to another, one toilet is out of order and three windows should be overhauled.

Our country being at war needs the help of every available man and we call the attention of the people of Kent county to the Compulsory Work Law. We find that the State's Attorney and the Sheriff are now and have always been ready to render any assistance in their power to carry out provisions of this law.

We recommend, if it be possible for the authorities to do so, that all prisoners serving a jail sentence be used for work on the public highways of the county.

Information has come to the Grand Jury that certain Pool Rooms in Kent county, which are forms of gambling and as many boys congregate at these places, warning is given that such games should not be allowed to continue.

In conclusion, we desire to thank this Honorable Court, its officers and State's Attorney Vickers for the courtesy extended us.

HOWARD TURNER, Foreman.

CHURCH NOTES

Chestertown M. E. Church services tomorrow as follows: 10.30 a. m., sermon by pastor, subject "The Reward of the Faithful." Opportunity will be given at this service for probationers in the church to be received in full membership. 2.15 p. m., Sunday school; 7 p. m., special song service and short sermon, subject "Sacrifice and Song." Porf. Irving Mack and Dr. J. Lincoly Hall, noted singers, of Philadelphia, will assist in the music at all the services of the day. Please remember we are having the services at the usual hours, 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. The public cordially invited.

The masterly sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Gardner, at Pomona, Sunday on the subject "The White Robed Angels of the Battlefield" was worthy of special note. One of his hearers says, "We have ofter heard addresses on the Red Cross work, and the magazines have given us much much information that is helpful, but I assure you we never listened to such an array of facts, and such soul stirring eloquence as were given us by our pastor in the message of yesterday. I wish that people all over the country could have heard the things which he so graphically presented, for I am sure that it would mean a gain of many members for our work. I hope that Rev. Mr. Gardner will be given many opportunities to present this message to other congregations. Let the different units write him about preaching it. It is a wonderful message."

SCHOOL NOTES

Prof. Daniel Hall has been appointed principal of the High School at Millington.

Mrs. Margaret Smith has been appointed teacher of the school at Pomona.

The State Board of Education has passed upon and ordered reforms for the reduction of expenses incident to the graduation from the High schools of the State. These reforms are:

1. If there is a department of Domestic Art in the High School, the graduates should make their dresses, and same not to exceed in cost $8.00.
2. The invitations to the graduating exercises should be printed, and not engraved.
3. The music at the graduation exercises should be furnished by the talent of the school.
4. Caps and gowns should not be worn, nor should the word "Baccalaureate" be used in connection with the sermon preached to the graduates.
5. Class Day exercises should be separate from graduation exercises.

The senior class of the Chestertown High school presented the school with a $50 Liberty Bond on last Tuesday.

Mrs. L. C. Robinson is substituting at Fairlee school for Miss Caroline I. Smyth who is sick.

The following officers were elected at the C. H. S. Literary meeting last Thursday afternoon: Pres. Skirven Startt; Vice-Pres., Albert Newton; Rec. Sec., French Skirven; Cor. Sec., Norris Reed.

Thrift Stamp Clubs have been organized at the C. H. S. with the following officers: Pres, Mr. Creasy; Vice-Pres., Alice Hynson; Treas., Mr. Blades; Asst. Treas., Olive Kent; Sect'y., Miss Willis; Asst. Sect'y., Daniel McKee.

Each grade constitutes a club, each having a distinct title and captain, as follows:

11th grade—"Uncle Sam," Margaret Atkinson, captain.

10th grade— "Pershing Club," Ruth Corey, captain.

9th grade—"Kaiser Killers," Alvin Brown, captain.

8th grade—"U Boat Chasers," Willard Culp, captain.

7th grade—"National Service," Ballard Ward, captain.

The clubs are doing excellent work. The 9th grade has already sold more than $50.00 worth of Thrift Stamps and has been presented with a book of stamps by Prof. Creasy.

The Elementary school is also organizing into clubs working effectively along similar lines.

The teachers salary bill, which passed the last legislature and which has been signed by the governor, gives the teachers in Kent, in the lower grades, a substantial increase in salary, provided the county commissioners will appropriate the necessary funds. The $150,000 included in the governors budget provides a bonus for the teachers who this year received less than $600. This bonus will be $50 for each white teacher, and $25.00 for each colored teacher.
