CHURCH NOTES

At Wesley Chapel on Sunday morning at 10.30 there will be a patriotic service in honor of the boys who have left Wesley to enter the Army and Navy. Also speeches for the Liberty Loan. Sunday school at 9.30.

The Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Sunday school elected these officers Sunday: President, Willard Culp; vice-president, Harry Russell; secretary, Miss Dorothy Ward; assistant secretary, Miss Florence Kent; manager, Mrs. Paul Adams, Miss Nellie Jones and Hope B. Hudson. At a meeting of teachers Sunday afternoon it was decided to present the church with an electric vacuum cleaner, the committee to purchase same being Mrs. C. C. Jones, Joseph N. Wheatley and Hope Hudson. J. Hydie Thompson was appointed a committee to purchase a clock for the Sunday school room.

The P. E. Church at Galena has been reopened and Rev. Dr. Burke will supply the pulpit. The church has been temporarily closed because of the pastor's illness.

The Chestertown M. E. Church was the scene of interesting services on Sunday last. At the morning service in spite of the inclement weather a fair congregation was present and a splendid sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, after which sixteen were received in the church in full membership, Messrs. J. Lincoln Hall and Irving H. Mack were present and sang. Solo "I Have Been Alone With Jesus," by Mr. Hall, and duet "Some Day He'll Make It Plain to Me," by Hall and Mack. In the Sunday school service these gentlemen hadcomplete charge of the music and more than an hour was spent in singing by the school. The evening service was inspiring; an hour was spent in singing under leadership of Mr. Mack, followed by sermon by Dr. E. L. Hyde, Conference Evangelist of Philadelphia Conference, from the text "Come Unto Me All Ye That Are Weary and Heavy Laden and I Will Give You Rest."

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor. Sunday services as follows: Morning worship, "The Prayer For His Deciples," 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school will be closed in the afternoon to give place to a Community Meeting to be held in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan beginning at 3.00 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, J. Waters Russell, leader, 6.45 p. m.; evening worship, "Promptitude In Action," 7.30 p. m.; prayer meeting Thursday 7.30 p. m.; Intermediate Friday 7.00 p. m.

There will be no Sunday school in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday next owing to the Liberty Loan meeting which will be held there at 3 o'clock.

Betterton M. E. Church services—Sunday school in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, preaching by the pastor Rev. Goodhand, at 3 o'clock, Junior League at 7 p. m., Epworth at 8 p. m.

The Betterton Epworth League business meeting held in the Sunday school room Wednesday evening was with a full attendance. After the business part of the meeting was over a program consisting of readings by the president of the League, Mrs. Harvey Moore, Mrs. Bayard Crew, Miss Florence Jewell and Mrs. James Brice. A violin solo by Mrs. Fountain Crew and Mrs. Charles Brice, a solo by Arthur Brice, an address by the pastor, Rev. Goodhand, and a talk by Reese Young, after which refreshments were served in the basement, consisting of cake and ice cream.

Chestertown M. E. Church, 10.30 a. m., sermon by pastor, "Tents That Are Eternal;" 2.15 p. m., Sunday school; 7 p. m., Epworth League and short sermon by pastor.

A party consisting of Mrs. William Medders, Mrs. Jonnie Robinson, Mrs. L. W. Ford, Mrs. Ella Pennington, Misses Lucile Parr, Edna Wroth, Anna Bowers and others went to Baltimore Thursday to see "Over There.'

Mrs. Passwater, of Wilmington, visited her sister, Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., this week.

The ladies meet every Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders to sew for the Red Cross. Quite a number have been attending, but there is plenty of work for more —so come out and help a good cause.

Misses Susie Raymond and Susie Baynard, of Clayton, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bennett.

Millard Wilmore has returned to his home at Fairlee after spending some time at the home of Mrs. Susie Toulson.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth League will meet at the home of Mrs. Susie Toulson Thursday evening, May 2. There will be an election of officers, so a full attendance is desired.

Perry Ensor, of Western Maryland, has been the guest this week of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers.

Rev. Avery Donovan, the new pastor of St. James, was given a hearty reception Thursday. Rev. H. B. Jester arrived at his new charge in Virginia Tuesday.

REAL ESTATE MAN WINS CASE

In Superior Court in Wilmington, recently, in the case of John Heldmyer, Jr., against Henry Cleaver, for commission on the sale of some land in St. Georges hundred, a jury returned a verdict for Heldmyer, the plaintiff, awarding $497.25, the amount of commission, and interest from last July. L. Irving Handy was counsel for the plaintiff and Richard S. Rodney for the defense. Mr. Heldmyer, who is a real estate agent at Middletown, testified that Mr. Cleaver two years ago, employed him to sell a farm in St. Georges hundred for $16,000, agreeing to give him three per cent commission. He said he produced Robert Morgan, of Kennedyville, as a satisfactory purchaser and when he took Mr. Morgan to Mr. Cleaver the latter agreed to sell the farm for $15,000. Evidence showed that Morgan gave his check for $500 in consummation of the sale but subsequently stopped the payment on it and failed to fulfill the remaining terms of the sale. Mr. C. said he sold the wheat crop on the farm about the last of July. Heldmyer brought suit for $450, the 3 per cent commission agreed upon. The jury sustained his contention although the defendant contended the sale never was consummated.

The public will recall that a suit was brought and won against Mr. Morgan in the Kent County Court last fall by H. W. Vickers in this same case. Mr. Vickers' suit was to force payment of this check.

Dr. Edward Power, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Misses Vic and Annie Power.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 1.30 o'clock on Saturday, April 20, when Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hurlock, of Millington, became the bride of S. Thomas Pippin, U. S. Marine Corps, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed under the stars and stripes by the Rev. C. R. Birnbach, rector of Holy Cross Chapel, at the home of the bride. Miss Hurlock, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traveling suit of dark blue, with a hat to match and carried a corsage of orchids. A reception for the members of the families and a few intimate friends followed the ceremony. After a short honeymoon they returned to the home of the bride until April 30, when the groom will leave for Cuba, where he is now stationed. Mrs. Pippin will accompany him to Charleston, S. C., but will return and remain for the present with her parents. They were the recipients of many costly and useful presents.

MONEY IS PLENTIFUL

But It is Hard To Keep Without A Bank Account

¶ No matter how plentiful money may be, you cannot keep it if you fritter it away.

¶ And to carry money around in your pocket affords an ideal opportunity for frittering.

¶ Any man may spend a dollar foolishly from his pocket when he would hesitate to draw a check.

¶ Money is plentiful in this country—more so than in any other country of the globe.
