Local Notes

The chicken farm across the river owned and conducted by Mr. Truslow & Son is a most interesting place to visit. They have a splendid bungalow home nicely furnished on the Chester while the chicken yards occupy a large part of the farm. In the incubator are 5,000 eggs, in the yards are more than 1500 month-old chicks and 1500 old fowls, all of the white leghorn breed and pure at that. It is a sight to see the men bringing in 900 eggs every day.

W. W. Beck, Esq., has sold at private sale the Walker farm located in the fifth district to Harvey Cooper, Esq., of Denton, for $10,000. This farm is tenanted by Joseph Sutton.

The base ball game which was played on Saturday between Kennedyville and Millington, was won by the former the sscore being 21 runs to 5.

Washington College beat Rock Hill last Saturday afternoon it being the first defeat suffered by Rock Hill this year.

A verdict for the Tolchester Beach Improvement Company was rendered Tuesday by a jury in the Court of Common Pleas in a suit for $2,500 by Benno Gardner for an alleged assault by a watchman of the company. The alleged assault was committed on August 7 last, as Gardner was leaving the steamer Louise. James W. Chapman, Jr., was the company's attorney.

The following are the High School Literary Club officers: President, Alfred Cohen; vice-president, Norman Carter; recording secretary, Helen Rouse; corresponding secretary, Dudley Stafford; treasurer, Dorothy Woodall; sergeant-at-Arms, Milbourne Jones.

The Toulson or Phillips farm in Quaker Neck was sold at public sale Tuesday by W. W. Beck, assignee, to J. Romie Byrom for $5,500. It contains 93 acres.

Undertaker Charles L. Dodd has purchased thru Wm. W. Clendaniel a handsome funeral automobile. It is of the latest design and build.

Howard Turner, the energetic president of the W. S. S. campaign, held a conference of teachers and others Monday evening. Owing to the storm there was but 50 of the 175 present and another meeting was held last night.

Strawberries were on sale in Chestertown market at 22 cents per quart. Messrs. Holden and Williams were the early growers.

G. E. Wolcott, of College Park, will give a talk on feeding and the dairy outlook at Kennedyville next Friday night, May 24th. J. G. Winkjer, of Washington, will also talk on the subject. Kent county cooled over 8,000,000 pounds of milk the past year and our people are becoming alert to the business.

The Noland Motor Company are doing a fine business but owing to the fact that two members of the firm and their head mechanic being in the draft, the Noland Motor Company is offering their business for sale. Conlyn Noland and J. Webster McIntire accompanied by Dr. Frank W. Smith and Mr. Keyser, of Fairlee, returned from Philadelphia, on Tuesday of last week, with two new Maxwell cars for this company.

George White, a well-known colored citizen, for many years employed by John N. Bennett in his farming and dairy business, died last week.

George W. Carter, Sr., has purchased from Mrs. Benjamin Wilkins the house on High street which he now occupies adjoining Sacred Heart Church. Price $1,000. Improvements will be made at once.

Betterton is arranging a big May Party to be given Friday, May 24th, under the direction of Miriam Sheppard Davidson. A children's play will be a feature in the evening. Choral Club's initial appearance. A big drive for War Savings Stamps. Benefit of Red Cross.

S. D. Leaverton, of Fairlee, has decided not to sell his stock of store goods as advertised in "News" last week.

U. N. Bethell, vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, states that reports now tabulated show that of the employees of the Bell Telephone System throught the country 119,402 subscribed for $8,060,050 in Third Liberty Loan bonds. The average subscription was $68. Mr. Bethell announces that these figures include only subscriptions on the company's easy payment plan, no account having been taken of subscriptions made by employees directly through banks or other channels.

Fairlee Grange will hold its regular weekly meeting next Wednesday evening, May 22nd, promptly at 8 o'clock. Matters of great importance will be discussed. HE will be there. Every member is earnestly requested to be present to hear and enjoy him.

H. L. Boyd has been supervising the trimming of the trees in our parks. The result in a big improvment.

A. M. Culp, president of the Chestertown Choral Club, requests a full meeting of the club next Tuesday evening for the annual election of officers.

Through the Navy League appeal in Red Cross Program last Wednesday evening Howard Turner, Betterton, gave a generous contribution. Other contributors to this fund will be appreciated by the sailors who are making it possible for our boys "to go over." Miss Ethel Bacchus, Local Chairman of Navy League.

If you want something in the way of a cool suit for hot weather read Bordley & Sons ad. in this issue.

The Chestertown milk station "went over the top" Thursday receiving 150 cans of 100 pounds each.

KENNEDYVILLE

Rev. L. F. Warner, President of the Maryland Conference Methodist Protestant Church, was with us on Sunday evening last on his official visit and preached a splendid sermon.

Miss Eva Jewell and Mr. Primrose, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Jewell.

Another automobile accident happened on Sunday when Chas. Crowding's machine turned turtle on the road near Mr. Silcox's gate, the machine was demolished, but luckily Mr. Crowding was not hurt more than a few scratches and bruises.

Owing to the storm the entertainment to be held on Monday evening in the school hall was postponed until sometime in the future.

Miss Bessie E. Numbers, of Clayton, Del., after visiting Miss Nellie Othoson, has left to visit Rev. and Mrs. Frank S. Cain, of near Havre de Grace.

Rev. and Mrs. Cain spent a few days the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othoson, while their daughter, Miss Bessie Jett Cain, spent a few days with Miss Catherine Urie.

Our Children's Day service will be held the first Sunday in June. Don't forget the Sunday school and Church service.

Quite a few of our people attended the circus at Wilmington on Monday. Among them we noticed William B. Cleaver, Harry and Linwood Redmile and Robert Wallis, they report encountering quite a heavy storm before leaving Wilmington.
