SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1918.

A movement has recently been inaugurated which might be called "The New Angelus," wherein men, women and children, everybody—is asked to stop in whatever undertaking they are engaged at the noon hour and pray. They are asked to pray fervently and sincerely for a blessing on the soldiers in the trenches and the sailors on the high sea. They are to beseech Almighty God to guide our President that he may lead our Nation through this time of great crisis, and that we and our Allies may have a speedy victory against our enemies. The movement has become widespread and is certainly a step toward winning the war. All the church bells are rung at this noon hour and all stop where they are and pray. Dr. Henry B. Martin, of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, heartily endorses the call to prayer in the following beautiful thought:

A Call To Prayer

In view of that which may be truly called at this time, our great eternity, with our hearts well nigh failing us for fear, because of the appalling dangers that threaten us, and the pain, suffering and uncertainty as to the issue of the terrible war now raging in Europe—what shall we do? What is our duty? Where is our safety? Who can rescue us from impending catastrophe and disaster? Who defend us? Who save us from horrors, the loss, the blood-shed and desolation, such as has befallen our brethren across the sea?

Does it not behoove us to resort to every available means to save our country, our homes, our lives. The answer goes swelling forth from the heart and lip of every patriot—yes! Who can safeguard our interests, defend and save us? One being only, one who is all powerful and all loving, though He may seem to some to be far from us. But He is not far from us. He is about our path and about our bed: He is Emmanuel—God with us: but many of us, are not, as we should be, with Him. With Him are the issues of life and death. He and no one else is our Refuge and Helper, our Saviour. He is ready and willing to help, for He loves us, but He waits to be asked to help us. Our people have been asked to help in this time of need, and most nobly have they responded to the many calls made upon them for money, time and themselves. Think you they would have done all that they have done, had they not been asked to do it? Witness the wonderful success of the three calls for investment in the Liberty Bonds, the Red Cross, Thrift Stamps, the Young Men's Christian Association, and other helping agencies. Truly our people are alive, they are doing their possible, and will continue to do it. They are not stingy nor laggards.

We thank God what they have done, and are doing—and take courage. But, think you, I ask, would they have done all this, had they not been asked to do it? I think not, I am sure not. Remember the promise, "Ask and ye shall receive."

But we must not stop here, what we have done is but part of the duty we owe. The other part is as great and important; and it now devolves upon us to take up that part and faithfully, earnestly perform it. That duty is the turning with heart and soul and humble supplication to Him who alone can help, save and deliver us from the fearful calamities and ruthlessness our enemies are seeking to bring upon us.

But we must ask for that help or we will not receive it. We are asking, each one of us, I doubt not, in his and her private closet. I think we need unity in asking; we need to come together, and with one heart and voice plead to God. Let us try to realize this, let us awaken to the fact, the truest of all facts, that God, our loving Almighty Father, the King of Kings, rules the world and all things in it. Let us go, one and all of us, to Him, as we have never gone before, not alone singly, but in a body of united believers in Him and His power, and beseech Him, to help and defend us now, to protect and save us, from the hand of our cruel, bloodthirsty, unscrupulous, unprincipled enemy.

The President has called the nation to a day of Prayer and Supplication. Let us observe that day. Let us assemble in our churches, and humbly pray God to make speed to help and defend us. I appeal to all men as well as women, to call upon Him, our only help in time of need.

And remember, there are many of us who have dear ones "over there," and others are going, ready and willing to pour out their heart's blood for us, for you and for me. For them we need to pray do we not, that they may be protected, saved and brought home to us again.

A special service of prayer and supplication will be held in Emmanuel Church at 10.30 a. m., on Thursday, May 30th.

May God grant a large attendance on that day in all our churches.

HENRY B. MARTIN.

CAPTAIN HOWARD OUT

Captain Thomas C. B. Howard, commander of the Maryland Oyster Navy and known to every oysterman of Maryland, especially in the tidewater section of the State, has been relieved of his duties. Notice to this effect was received by Captain Howard from the Maryland Conservation Commission. This action is said to have been taken because of war conditions and because the government has taken over all of the force for shipping conditions.

The Thrift Stamp adv. elsewhere in the News gives the dates for public meetings. Be present if possible.

The amount raised for Red Cross at the hour of going to press was $4,500. Kent was asked for $4,000 and $5,000 will be reached by tonight.

Hon James A. Pearce has been named by Gov. Harrington as a member of the State Board of Education. This is a most excellent appointment.

W. W. Beck, Esq., received a telegram Monday notifying him he had been appointed a member of the State Tax Commission for a term of six years. The salary is $5,000. Mr. Beck will succeed Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., who declined a reappointment. Mr. Beck is too well known to require any extended eulogy in these columns. The Governor in naming Mr. Beck has picked a man of lovable personal qualities and one who is eminently qualified to fill the position. He is intelligent and capable and with his varied experiences and dealings with public matters will bring to the office continued efficiency and service. Kent county feels honored that this plum has fallen here and in such deserving hands.

The School Commissioners of Kent County at a special meeting on Monday made up their budget for the coming year. Dr. E. J. Clarke appeared before the County Commissionrs Tuesday and presented the claims of the schools. There is no class who are so little paid in comparison with the importance of the work performed than the teacher and the preacher. One is intrusted with the education of the mind while the other the salvation of the soul. What can possibly be above these two, no amount of money will ever repay the faithful and devoted teacher and preacher who give their very life to the world. It is time these workmen were coming into their own and we hope our commissioners will deal liberally with the schools and the people in the churches will see to the preachers.

W. W. BECK TO STATE TAX COMMISSION

Appointments To Vacancies Announced By Gov. Harrington—Appointment Of Mr. Beck To Succeed Mr. Wickes Received With Approval In Kent—Mr. Harrington Hails From Talbot.

At Annapolis last Sunday evening Governor Harrington announced the following appointments:

W. W. BECK, former Democratic senator from Kent county, to succeed Lewin W. Wickes, of the same county, who declined reappointment.

JOSEPH B. HARRINGTON, of Talbot county, Democrat, to succeed James Higgins, Democrat, formerly of Dorchester county.

ALBERT J. ALMONEY, of Montgomery county, secretary of the Democratic State Central Committee, to be a member of the State Advisory Parole Board, to succeed E. M. Parrish, advanced to the chairmanship of the board to succeed Charles M. Reid, resigned. The appointments of Messrs. Harrington and Almoney will take effect at once. Mr. Beck will assume office on June 1.

The only other appointments awaiting the Governor are members of the State Roads Commission and an assignment of a police justice to the Northeastern district to succeed the late W. C. Clift.

FARMS WANTED

IN SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA
DELAWARE AND EASTERN MARYLAND

I want farms, big and little, corn and grain farms, fruit farms, truck farms, waterfronts and country places to sell to industrial workers and Western farmers.

I have one of the largest real estate agencies in Chester, Pennsylvania, where over 50,000 highly paid shipyard and steel workers, are employed. I am also building up a very large farm agency business covering Southeastern Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland and Delaware, with offices in Newark, Delaware.

I CHARGE NO COMMISSIONS

Unlike most real estate agencies, I make no charge to owners of farm property for my services in making sales. I pay the owner of the property his full price, free and clear of all expenses and charges.

My method of handling property makes it necessary for me to have the exclusive agency of the property for a specified time so that I may be justified in advertising liberally, printing and mailing descriptions of the property to prospective buyers, and showing same by automobile service.

If you have land for sale, write me full description, stating price, when possession can be had, etc., and if it appears desirable I will promptly make final arrangements for selling.
