Burned to Death.—The colored cook of Mr. Wm. R. Price, near Betterton, was burned to death one day last week. She is supposed to have poured coal oil on the kitchen fire while there was fire in the stove. Mr. Price heard her screams and ran to the kitchen and found the woman's clothes burned off and her condition pitiable. The doctor was sent for but she died in a short time. She was about 23 years of age.

WAR SAVINGS CAMPAIGN

This has been War Savings week in Kent. Chairman Howard Turner with his active committees have made business hum and it is hoped from this time up to January 1, 1919, the interest will increase. Kent's allotment is $339,140.

Millington started off with $7,000 raised at a meeting addressed by Baltimore speakers.

Worton Station came across with a good sum. State's Attorney Vickers and R. H. Rogers, Esq., made addresses at Rock Hall.

A permanent committee of about thirty members has been appointed to promote the War Savings Stamp Campaign. They worked on Friday and Saturday and reported at the drive on Saturday evening a subscription of $8,160 with Miss Biddle as the honor member. County Director Howard Turner, was present and forcefully presented the opportunity. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering, of Baltimore, delighted the audience with some patriotic songs.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at Kennedyville on Monday night, when a stirring address by Edwin H. Brown, Esq., resulted in a total of $10,125. It is expected that these districts will quadruple the amounts already subscribed.

At Still Pond Tuesday evening the new Odd Fellows' Hall was the scene of a fine gathering. Mr. Pickering delighted all with his splendid singing. R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., and Fred. G. Usilton presented the theme of the evening and nearly $5,000 was pledged. More will be gotten by the active committee there with Mrs. Walter Harris and F. B. Harper as chairmen.

Big Chestertown Meeting

The meeting in Chestertown was preceded by a street parade that did credit to everyone. It was ideal in arrangement, impressive in its development and beautiful in its motion. First came the Boy Scouts under R. G. Parks, Esq., followed by the big Baltimore band. Then came a float containing five of our most attractive matrons representing the allied nations, viz., Italy, Mrs. Parker; England, Mrs. D. B. Ford; America, Mrs. A. Parks Rasin; Belgium, Mrs. Jane Robinson; France, Mrs. T. W. Perkins. This beautiful float was drawn by the town's elegant pair of bays driven tandem by Wm. Needles and Officer Cooper.

A Baltimorean remarked that these were the most beautiful ladies he had seen in 72 years. This float was followed by the Red Cross workers under Mrs. Louis Wood and War Stamp Committee with A. Parks Rasin as Chairman.

The meeting in the hall was addressed by Dr. Edward Burke, Pastor of Cecilton P. E. Church, who made a most impressive and eloquent appeal. He was followed by Hon. Robt. Crain, of Baltimore, Chairman of the State. He was enthusiastic, witty and earnest and made a strong talk for the cause. Mr. Pickering's singing delighted every one. About $50,000 was subscribed.

At Fairlee last Friday night over $2,000 was pledged after a fine speech by Hon. Howard Bryant, of Baltimore.

One of the biggest events of the week was the meeting at Betterton Thursday night where nearly $24,000 was subscribed. Howard Turner, campaign director for Kent county, presided. Former Senator Frank E. Williams, of Cecil county, was the speaker, and George E. Pickering, of Baltimore, swayed the crowd with war songs. Prior to the meeting an honor flag, representing the county's success in the recent Liberty Loan campaign, an American flag and a service banner, containing stars of the 13 young men of Betterton in the service, were unfurled. Special tribute was paid at this service to Private J. Edgar Potts, of the One Hundred and Seventeenth Trench Motar Battery, who was the first Kent county boy to fall in action. Mrs. Chas. H. Brice raised the American flag, Howard F. Owens, the Honor flag and John H. Ellis, who has a son in army, raised the service flag.
