REMEMBER YOUR LOCAL MERCHANTS

With Christmas about three weeks off, most of our people are thinking about their Christmas purchases. If you want to be a booster of home enterprises and help your town or community to prosper, it is essential that you patronize your home merchants. Many of them have laid in large quantities of Christmas goods and if our local purchasers go to the cities to get their Christmas supplies our merchants will be left with their goods on their hands. Every time you spend a dollar in your own town or community you make that town or community just one dollar better off; and every time you spend a dollar away from your town or community you make that town or community just one dollar poorer. It is a plain business proposition that our merchants cannot afford to carry large and attractive stocks of merchandise if the home people do not buy at home. These facts are worth remembering.

America's Oldest Gunner

Clerk of the Court H. W. Lewis, of Elkton, who has been quite busy for the past two weeks issuing licenses, received an application and issued on Tuesday a license to John Hollis, colored, of Port Deposit. Hollis gave his age as 105 years and his occupation as a laborer. At first it was thought there had been a mistake made in filling in the age, and Clerk of the Court Lewis took the matter up with the County Commissioners, who also stated that the man was believed to be about the age stated.

PUBLIC SALE
—OF—
A Valuable Farm

IN THE FIRST DISTRICT OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage from Margaret Rolph, widow, to Thomas B. Gardiner, bearing date the 7th day of January, 1918, and duly assigned to Cora B. Moffett by assignment, dated Jan. 7, 1920, which said mortgage and assignment are duly recorded among the land records of Kent County, Maryland, in Liber A. P. R. No. 3, Folio 55, etc., the undersigned as assignee of said mortgage will offer at public sale in front of the Court House door in Chestertown, Maryland, on between the hours of 11 o'clock a. m. and 12 o'clock noon,

Tuesday, December 26, '22

All That Valuable Farm

PIECE OR TRACT OF LAND

located in the First Election District of Kent County, on the public road leading from Lee's Chapel to Galena, and containing

187 ACRES

AND 26 PERCHES OF LAND, more or less

it being the same land described in a deed from Alice D. Cummins to Margaret R. Rolph, dated March 3, 1890, and recorded among the Land Records of Kent County in Liber S. B. No. 13, Folio 231, etc., and adjoins the lands of John Price, Samuel Hurlock, Lee Chapel and others.

This farm is well located, produces well and is improved by a frame dwelling with necessary farm buildings in fair condition. It should attract those seeking a home as well as those seeking investments.

Worton Grange Notes

One of the most enjoyable evenings ever spent by the patrons of Worton Grange was Monday night, Nov. 27, which was celebrated as "Home Coming" night. No pains had been spared to make this a great occasion, and all rallied to the front and made this truly a night to be remembered. The decorating committee had gotten busy and the result was quite pleasing to the artistic eye. Ears of corn, fruit, and flowers in profusion were used. The program, in charge of our Worthy Lecturer, was great. This program consisted of reading, recitations, music, songs, etc. The duet by Bro. Rash and Sister Sarah Carter was received with great applause, until they appeared again and sang "Yankee Doodle" backwards. At the conclusion of this very interesting program the ladies served all with sugar cakes, crullers, coffee and cocoa, and the social hour soon passed and then came the good nights, after which all wended their way to their different homes.

The next meeting of this grange will be held Dec. 11. Let this and all meeting nights be "home coming" nights, and we will then show that Worton Grange is indeed up and doing.

—Rabbits, first reported scare, at the beginning of the season, are now so scarce that the average Kent hunter returns with none more often than he does with a single rabbit.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Hope H. Barroll, Morris K. Barroll, John W. Barroll, Solicitors for Plaintiff.

Elizabeth Gray, Widow of Henry J. Gray, vs.
Lottie B. Spry, Wm. L. Spry, her husband, Blanche D. Jarman, Elmer S. Jarman, her husband, Hattie Merchant, Wm. Merchant, her husband, Clarence E. Gray, Mary Gray, his wife, Violet Carrow and Raymond Carrow, her husband.

No. 2205 Chancery.
In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of the late Henry J. Gray and divide the proceeds therefrom to those legally entitled thereto.

The Bill states:

1. That the late Henry J. Gray died near Galena, in the First Election District of Kent County, Maryland, in the month of October, 1922; and at the time of his death was possessed of certain large and valuable real estate. The said Henry J. Gray left a last Will and Testament, which has been duly admitted to probate in the Orphans Court for Kent County, Maryland, a duly certified copy of which, duly signed, is filed with this Bill of Complaint and prayed to be taken as a part hereof precisely as if the same were fully recited herein at length and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1."

2. And your Oratrix shows that Henry J. Gray left surviving a widow, your Oratrix, Elizabeth Gray, three daughters, Lottie B. Spry, Blanche D. Jarman and Hattie Merchant, all of whom are named above and are made parties defendants in this suit; a son, Clarence E. Gray, and a grand-daughter, Violet Carrow, who are also made defendants in this suit.

3. And your Oratrix further shows that she has renounced all her rights of every kind, character and description to which she may be entitled under the terms of the Will of her late husband, Henry J. Gray; that she declines to accept the terms and gifts under and by virtue of the said Will in lieu of her statutory rights which entitle her to her dower interest in the real and personal estate of the said Henry J. Gray and she claims title to the share to which, under the laws of the State of Maryland, she is entitled in and to the real and personal estate of the said Henry J. Gray.

4. Your Oratrix being entitled to an interest in the estate of her late husband, Henry J. Gray, wishes the real estate sold and such sum or sums of money which may be due to her and to which she may be entitled under the laws of the State of Maryland paid over to her and the balance distributed in accordance with the decree of this Honorable Court; and she shows that she is in good health and that she is about 80 years of age; that it is for her interest and advantage not to accept $200 annually and she wishes paid to her such sum of money in lieu of said annuity; she is advised in order that this may be done that it is necessary to apply to this Honorable Court and ask for a decree for the sale of the real estate, she is without remedy unless your Honors appoint a Trustee to sell the same and divide the proceeds.

It is thereupon, this 28th day of November, 1922, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day of January next, giving notice to the said William Merchant, Hattie Merchant, William L. Spry, Lottie B. Spry, Clarence E. Gray and Violet Carrow, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 17th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayer.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Hettie Thompson versus Naomi Starling Martin and Levy Martin, Cora Rolston and Harry Rolston, Vermadella Wilson and Elwood Wilson, Oliver Starling, Jr., and Bertha Starling.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, In Equity No. 2207.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain property in Kent County, Maryland, belonging to William T. Thompson, deceased, in order to divide the proceeds of sale among those interested therein.

The bill states, first, that William T. Thompson, late of Kent County, deceased, was in his life time and at the time of his death seized and possessed in fee simple absolutely of real estate, situate in the First Election District of Kent County, Maryland, on the East side of the road leading from Chesterville to Shadenrich, adjoining the lands of Wayman Thomas and Perry Henry Brown, and containing about six acres of land, more or less; the same property purchased from Charles T. Westcott about twenty-five years ago.

2nd. That being so seized the said William T. Thompson departed this life on or about April 24th, 1919, leaving a widow surviving him, the said Hettie Thompson, who is over twenty-one year of age and resides in Millington, Maryland, and at times employed at Wilmington, Delaware.

3rd. The said William T. Thompson, deceased, left the following heirs at law:

(a) Cora Thompson, who was a daughter by Georgia Thompson, the first wife, who died about the year 1902; and who intermarried with Harry Rolston, and both are over 21 years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

(b) Naomi Starling Martin, granddaughter of the said William T. Thompson, and a daughter of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. She intermarried with Levy Martin, and both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Camden, New Jersey.

(c) Vermadella Wilson, a granddaughter of the said William T. Thompson, and a daughter of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. She intermarried with Elwood Wilson; both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

(d) Oliver Starling, Jr., a grandson of the said William T. Thompson, and a son of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. He intermarried with Bertha Starling; both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

4th. That the said real estate will not admit of being divided among the parties entitled thereto as aforesaid, without material loss or injury to said parties, and that it would be for the benefit and advantage of all the parties interested therein to sell the property and divide the proceeds among them.

It is, thereupon, this 22nd day of November, 1922, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 18th day of December next; giving notice to the said non-resident defendants, Naomi Starling Martin and Levy Martin, of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 2nd day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Auction Sale

Fifty Durocs, Tuesday, December 12, 1 p. m., Old Field Point Farm, Galena, Md.

We have more than we care to carry over.

Durocs are the greatest money makers in the world. Over 50 per cent of the hogs marketed in the United States are red, conclusive evidence that they are the most profitable.

Our stock is bred right and carefully selected for prolificacy, size and shape. Some of them have farrowed an average of 12 to the litter and some of them have dressed 430 at a year old. The sows and gilts offered for sale will be bred for March farrow to a Defender boar, with the exception of some of the gilts who are too young to breed. The boars are registered. They are all pure-bred, but not all registered, and are all good individuals.

We will offer ten sows, fifteen gilts, thirty fall pigs and two spring boars.

Terms cash.
