SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Chestertown High And Elementary Schools Present Fine Programs This Week—College Next Week.

This has been commencement week among the public schools of Kent. The sermon to the graduates of the High School was preached in Christ M. P. Church Sunday morning by Rev. J. L. Ward. Special music by the choir, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, soloist, was a feature. The decorations were lovely, big bouquets of daisies predominating.

The declamation contest was an interesting event Tuesday evening, the winners being Miss Mildred Melvin, first and Miss Olive Kent, second. The program was as follows:

Piano solo, Elizabeth Reed; quintet, Miss Sachs, Miss Christopher and Messrs. McKee, Davis and Jewell; vocal solo, Helen Rouse; contest, Talmage Strong, Spartacus to the Gladiator; Skirven Startt, Webster's reply to Hayne; Thomas Davis, Borther Watkins; Olive Kent, President Wilson's address to Congress; Mildred Melvin, Robert Emmett's Last Speech.

Wednesday evening, the class night exercises were held in the school auditorium, with an admission charge of 15 cents. The following program was rendered:

The orchestra is composed of Mrs. L. L. Burrell and Hyland Jewell, violins; William Smith, bells, Elizabeth Reed, piano.

Alumni Re-Union

On Thursday evening the annual Alumni banquet was held in the school basement, 7 to 11.

Hope B. Hudson, the President, was toastmaster and responses were made as follows: Our Superintendent, Dr. E. J. Clarke; School Commissioners, Wm. G. Smyth; Our Faculty, Prof. Mark A. Creasy; Solo, Miss Helen Baxter; Our Late Supt. J. L. Smyth, Miss Jeanette E. Gooding; The Graduating Class, Miss Margaret Atkinson; Music, Orchestra.

The menu was in charge of Miss Annie Copper, teacher of Domestic Science, and it could not have been served more daintily or appetizingly. The war rolls were particularly delicious. The tenth grade young ladies acted as waitresses in a most charming manner.

The menu was as follows:

Grape Fruit
Olives Pickles
Creamed Chicken New Potatoes
War Rolls Butter
Fruit Salad Saltines
Cake Cream
Coffee
Mints

At the annual election of officers Charles A. Wheatley, cashier of the Peoples Bank, was elected President, Miss Emily Ford, vice-president, Miss Daisy Barnes, cor. secretary, Miss Rebecca Davis, treasurer.

On Friday evening the commencement proper was held in the Lyceum Theatre, with the following program: Music; prayer, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp; class history, Ruth Matilda Newton; oration, The Farmer's Relation to the World War, Ralph Shinn; Review of the Aeneid, Margaret Atkinson; vocal solo, Helen Tilghman Connelly; essay, The C. H. S. in High Finance, Eunice Cornelia Morris; violin solo, James Hyland Jewell; address, Prof. F. B. Bomberger, of the State College of Agriculture; presentation of diplomas, Dr. Edward J. Clarke, County Superintendent of Schools; awarding of prizes; song, Star Spangled Banner; benediction. Dresses worn by the ladies of the class were made by their own hands, none exceeding $8 in cost.

Miss Annie Wallis won the prize in mathematics and Miss Helen Rasin for scholarship.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear wife SOPHRONIA E. LATHAM, who departed this life April 26, 1918.

O happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a vacant chair
The world can never fill. HUSBAND.

Rest on, dear mother, your labor's o'er,
Your willing hands will toil no more;
A loving mother, both true and kind,
A truer mother no one could find.
MAUD.

One month has passed, our hearts still sore,
As time flies on we miss her more;
She sleeps, we leave her in peace to rest.
The parting was painful; but God knows best.
NORRIS.

We miss you from our home, dear grandma,
Your kind and loving care;
Home seems dark without you,
We miss you everywhere.
GRANDCHILDREN.
