A ROUSING SEND-OFF

Colored Citizens Give The 45 Drafted Men A Big Time In Chestertown Tuesday—Speeches By Ministers.

The colored citizens of Chestertown and of Kent county proved their earnest interest in the great war and in the drafted men by giving them a splendid send-off Tuesday.

A parade of band, Red Cross members, Scouts, school children and veterans created great interest and proved a most creditable affair. Clara Johns and Catherine Gillam lead the nicely dressed army of nurses.

The 45 drafted men were addressed in front of the Court House by S. P. Townshend, Esq., Hon. James Alfred Pearce and three colored ministers, Revs. Bailey, Davis and Bowland. They were addresses of stirring character and filled with good advice. After these ceremonies a reception was held at the Hall by the colored Red Cross Auxiliary. A large crowd was present at the boat Wednesday to see them off. Parker Mays, the well-known carter, was in command of the men as follows:

Robert Cephus, Sassafras.
Alexander Comegys, Chestert'n No. 4.
Jas. Edw. McCray, Chestertown.
Reuben West, Kennedyville.

WEDDING NOTES

A pretty wedding was solemnized on June 12, at ten o'clock, when Miss Lillie Virginia, the popular and accomplished daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dwyer, of Harrisonburg, Va., became the bride of Sergeant Ernest Hoffman Strong, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Strong, near Lankford. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. Howard Wells, at the home of the bride's parents, was witnessed by a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Sergeant Strong is a member of the Engineers Corps, and stationed at Camp Humphries, Va. The wedding was precipitated by the fact that the groom was on his final furlough before leaving for the front. Sergeant Strong is well and favorably known in Chestertown, having made a host of friends while here as a member of the Noland Motor Company before his enlistment. The happy young couple are spending a part of their honeymoon at "Stephney," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Strong, near Lankford.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, was the scene of a simple but lovely wedding Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The principals were Miss Helen Tabitha, one of the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Russell, and George Pendrey Chandler, a successful merchant of Salisbury. The church was tastily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a befitting white Georgette dress and carried white roses and sweet peas. Her only attendant was her charming twin sister, Miss Louise, who was attired in pink Georgette and carried pink roses. The groom's best man was Harry Adkins, of Salisbury. The ushers were Joseph N. Wheatley, J. Raymond Simpers, of Chestertown, Harry Jones, of Salisbury, and Ralph Dykes, of Fruitland. Rev. J. L. Ward officiated and Miss Clara B. Usilton presided with skill at the pipe organ.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on spring avenue which was attended by over a hundred. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shuster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. G. Alexander and John L. Shuster, of Wilmington; Mrs. J. W. Flesh, Piqua, Ohio; Mrs. Chandler, Miss Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Dulaney, of Salisbury, Mrs. W. F. Russell, Jr., of Alabama, Miss Ruth Dykes, of Fruitland; Rev. E. L. Hubbard, J. H. Dulaney and wife.

The presents numbered more than a hundred and included beautiful and costly articles. The bride and groom left on a wedding trip North and upon their return will make their home in Salisbury.

HAND OF DEATH

Anthony H. Johnson, aged 61 years, a life-long resident of Kent county, died at his home near Sassafras early Saturday morning. He was born within a few miles of his present home, and was educated at Rock Hill College, in Western Maryland. He engaged in farming, which he followed uninterruptedly until his death, being very successful. He was a director of the Citizens' National Bank, Middletown, for many years. He leaves, besides his widow, four children: Bradford H. Johnson, of Newtown Square, Pa.; Clayton H. Johnson and Allen H. Johnson, of Sassafras, and Mrs. Fannie Huey, of Massey; two sisters, Mrs. E. G. Clark and Miss Catherine H. Johnson, of Middletown; and one brother, Stonewall Johnson, of Massey.

Funeral services were held at St. Dennis Catholic Church, Galena, on Tuesday morning, at 10.30 o'clock. The following were the bearers: Wilson Cochran, Harry Griffith, Chas H. Crawford, James Quinn, John Quinn and Louis Dreka.

Clarence Coleman, a former well-known citizen of Chestertown, died at Mont Alto, near Harrisburg, Pa., Thursday evening, aged about 40. He had been in poor health for sometime and leaves two children and a sister, Mrs. Harvey Boggs, and one brother, Marion Coleman, of Rock Hall. He was a son of the late James Coleman.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

The County Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the M. E. Church, Chestertown, on Thursday, June 27th, beginning at 10.30 a. m.

Some of the features of the morning session will be the reports of Officers and Superintendents of Departments and the election of officers, closing the morning session led by Mrs. Virgie Skirven.

The afternoon session beginning at 2 p. m., will open with devotional services conducted by Mrs. Tilghman Hudson, of Fairlee Union.

Our State President, Mrs. Mary R. Haslup, will speak upon the topic, "The Year's High Lights in State and National Progress," followed by the ministers of the county.

At 3.30 there will be a demonstration by the Loyal Temperance Legions under the leadership of their county superintendent, Mrs. Claude Parks, followed by a talk by Miss Carrie A. Greene, State Secretary of L. T. L. work.

Evening session, 8 p. m., the address of the evening will be given by Mrs. Addie B. Parsels, Vice-President of Pennsylvania W. C. T. U.

The music for the convention will be arranged by the music committee, Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell and Miss Hallie Toulson.

Any one having resolutions to offer may present them to Mrs. F. G. Usilton and Mrs. Norman Jefferson, the committee on resolutions.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Individuals will arrange for their own meals.

NOTICE

FOR the benefit of the public and the millers in this county, the following fair prices for bran and other mill feeds are published and must be adhered to by millers until further notice: Bran, cash at the mill in 100 lots, $1.60 per cwt.; credit at the mill in 100 lb. lots, $1.65 per cwt.; cash in less than 100 lb. lots, 1¾ cents per pound. Other mill feeds, cash at mill in 100 lb. lots $1.70 per cwt.; credit at mill, in 100 lb. lots, $1.75 per cwt.; less than 100 lb. lots 2c per lb.
