Local Notes

The treasurer for Kent county requests that all persons writing for dog tags will please give a description of dog, sex, color and name.

The residents of Quaker Neck who have been losing young turkeys will be glad to know that the guilty dog has been killed.

The recent school census in Kent showed 1971 white children and 1375 colored, an increase of 200.

On July 1st the new State law requiring lights on all vehicles will go into effect. Vehicles using the public highways must carry a light at night or the owner will be subject to fine.

William C. Money, of near Townsend, missed a pig last week and a search of several hours was made for it. Finally a farm hand found the pig dead in a milk can that had been left overturned in the back yard at the farm. The pig had evidently crawled into the can to feast on milk and could not get out, dying from exhaustion in trying to extricate itself from the trap.

Prof. Louis C. Robinson, primary supervisor for Kent county schools, has resigned to accept a position in the Franklin Institute of the State of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia. Prof. Robinson will leave his present position on July 1st. He has made a most excellent officer.

S. Powell Peacock, of Middletown, expects to be at the Chestertown race track on Monday with his horses to get in shape for the 4th of July races here and for the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair.

The mercury was down to 45 degrees Sunday morning and some built coal fires to keep warm. 2500 colored soldiers arrived at Camp Dix from Florida and they suffered greatly from the cold.

Spring chickens sold for 50 cents per pound in Chestertown this week.

Harry Clark killed a 5-foot black snake as it coiled about the chair in his dining room last Saturday.

Two Maryland men were killed when the Wallace-Hagenbeck circus train wrecked Saturday morning at Ivanhoe, Ind., were Arthur Derrick, aged 45 years and his brother, Oscar, aged 32 years. The men were performers and last winter purchased a farm two miles south of Elkton where they now have a number of ponies and various kinds of animals.

While Homer Rice, of Denton, and Walter Pippin, of Chestertown, were driving on the public road last week a storm came upon them. Going under a tree, near Fairlee, lightning struck the tree, tearing it to pieces. Rice was thrown twenty feet while Pippin was stunned severely, but soon recovered.

State Game Warden Le Compte has appointed John Anderson, of Centreville, to be deputy warden for Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties.

A terrific electrical storm, accompanied by much wind, hail and lightning, visited sections of Kent county last Saturday doing considerable damage to growing crops. The corn of William Hendrix and L. C. Price, on the Hossinger farm, and others in the neighborhood of Goose Hill was badly damaged. The home of Mr. Bailey, operator at Black's Station was struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of $100. Lightning also played a peculiar prank at the home of Mrs. H. S. Barnett, on Kent Circle, the bolt passing through the bath room without damage.

The Local Draft Board has mailed out "Questionaires" to all those who registered on June 5, for Army service, and invites all desiring assistance in filling out the blanks to call at the Court House.

The dog license law, passed at the last session of the legislature and effective July 1st, is published in full in this issue. Dog owners would do well to read it.

A new schedule of the P. B. & W. R. R. went into effect last week. The local train leaves in the morning at 7.35 and returns at 11.07 and in the afternoon leaves at 2.12 and returns 7.01.

The annual meeting of the Tolchester Company was held at Tolchester Beach on Saturday. Capt. W. C. Eliason was re-elected president; W. H. Hudson, vice-president and secretary, and J. M. Naudain, treasurer.

A new bridge is being built at Morgnec by G. E. Leary & Son, of Rock Hall. This firm also has repaired the county wharf foot of High street.

A magnolia tree in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kirby, has been in full flower the past week, presenting a beautiful sight and emitting a delightful perfume.

W. B. Copper, under power of attorney offered the Boggs farm at public sale Tuesday. Same was withdrawn at a bid of $65.00 per acre, or $19,565. The farm can be purchased at private sale.

The dental office of Dr. H. Childs Hughes will be closed from Friday until Tuesday, the doctor having been called to Western Maryland by the illness of his father.

The Newark, Del., Post speaks in terms of highest praise concerning the excellent performance of the play "Claim Allowed," recently rendered in that town by pupils of the Chestertown High School. The Post says,—"The play, a forceful, patriotic demonstration, was excellently rendered by by the young people who had been coached by Professor Owen C. Blades. The Opera House was crowded to the doors, with an audience that waxed more and more enthusiastic, as the play moved on to the close." The receipts of the play amounted to $262, and cleared $216.50, which is the greatest net sum cleared by any performance ever held in the town.

John E. Barnes, representing the Russell Realty Company, has sold a 40-acre tract of the Kimbolton Farm in Piney Neck, on Lankford Bay, to Captain C. E. Hillyer, of Baltimore. The J. W. Russell Realty Co. have removed their office over Loud's Ice Cream Parlor.

Davis Bros., of Galena, have this week delivered Griff Eldridge, of Cecilton, a Franklin six cylinder touring car, the first Franklin ever in this vicinity. It is a beautiful car, air cooled, and sells for $100 a pound. Also delivered to Mrs. Catherine R. Wilson, of Georgetown, a big six cylinder Paige, which will attract the attention of the public, it being strictly a high-grade car.

Franklin E. Maddox has resigned his position as cashier of the Deposit and Savings Bank of Snow Hill, to accept a more lucrative one with the Schmelz National Bank of Newport News, Va. Mr. Maddox became cashier of the Deposit and Savings Bank last year, resigning his position in Chestertown with the Peoples Bank.

Rock Hall Red Cross is to have a grand parade and patriotic speaking next Thursday, July 4th at 8 p. m. Out-of-town speakers will be present and a great time promised. Be sure and be present. This will be followed by a dance at the Junior Order Hall.

Ripe tomatoes were enjoyed on Tuesday by Dr. H. G. Simpers from his yard grown by his expert gardener, Henry Yorker.

The W. C. T. U., of Chestertown, will meet at Red Cross Chapter House next Wednesday at 11 a. m.
