SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1 PER YEAR

Entered at the Post Office at Chestertown Md., as Second Class matter.
Obituary and In Memoriam noticescost 5 cents per line, each insertion.

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1918.

The 9 white men selected in the draft and published last week will leave Chestertown next Wednesday, July 24th. Another call bor 4 men from Kent has been issued for Aug. 9.

The war news looks good to us. The German offensive has been smashed and Americans are sweeping through German lines with a rush. French gain from four to six miles on the twenty-five mile front between Aisne and the Marne. More than 20 villages recaptured. Nowhere along front have the Germans been able to withstand attack. Large number of prisoners captured. Important roads of supply for German armies in the South captured. Big German army in danger.

State Food Administrator Maltbie was in Chestertown on Wednesday night and explained in a most earnest manner the various provisions of the new rules as regards sugar, flour, etc. Only about a dozen merchants and millers were present but these asked enough questions to hold the speaker until 9.30. It is hoped those who were not present will inform themselves so as not get into trouble. The whole object of the rules is to conserve food and thus help win this war.

HELP FOR THE BLIND

Tuesday night a meeting was held at the Kent County Savings Bank for the purpose of helping the blind. Rev. S.S. Hepburn presided with T. W. Perkins as secretary. Lemont Hackett, an intelligent and forceful representative of the blind was persent and spoke. There are at present ten or a dozen people living in Kent who are unable to see. The Maryland Workshop for the Blind is an institution of Baltimore where any resident losing his or her sight can be taught how to be self-supporting, and in some cases teachers are sent to the homes of these unfortunates to teach them. Several of Kent county's blind have been greatly helped both at the school and at their homes by this institution.

The State has set aside $15,000 for the running expenses of this institution, but the management find that this is not adequate to meet the requirements of present-day living. In the first place, the shop derives no revenue from its scholars, but, on the other hand, pays them $3 a week and a bonus for the work done in order that they may provide board for themselves while learning.

A choice of several trades is offered those entering, among which may be mentioned broom making, chair caining, hammock making, basketry, matress making, piano tuning, weaving rugs, carpets, bags, pillow tops, knitting, crocheting, and even switchboard operating.

Now that the war front has many Maryland sons fighting it is possible that a few may return without their eyesight. This institution will instruct them until they are self-supporting, provided sufficient funds are raised. This will be impossible with the present means at hand. There are at present 177 people being taught and a waiting list of 100 unable to start in on account of funds.

Already Baltimore cily has started with $80,000 to help in the work, and an effort will be made to raise $25,000 in the counties.

The following committee were appointed in the several districts to solicit funds and it is hoped Kent county will go over the top in this laudable enterprise as in other war work. Let's make it $2,000 at least.

First District: J. P. Ahern, Millington; Wm. A. Hyland, Galena; E. Thomas Massey, Massey; Harry Griffith, Golt, R. R.

Second District: Edgar R. Pennington, Kennedyville; B. F. Rash, Worton; Robert Hill, Kennedyville; Geo. W. Sutton, Kennedyville.
