WHAT CATARRH IS

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors only irritate and do little if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from any harmful drugs. It is helping thousands. Try it.

CHAUTAUQUA HERE 31ST

No Increase In The Price Of Tickets Over Last Year.—This Organization Exempt From Taxation.

An interesting and attractive program has been arranged for the Chautauqua entertainment to be held in Chestertown the latter part of this month. Many new entertainers and lecturers are coming, and some of the lecturers are fresh from the war scenes of Europe.

Mrs. W. J. Bryan Coming

Mrs. W. J. Bryan will positively be here and deliver a lecture on "Woman's Work in the War Service." This is an added feature thrown in by the management for good measure, and she is backed by the National Young Women's Association.

George Lawrence Parker, a man of international repute, comes in place of Judge Kavanaugh, of Chicago. Mr. Parker has preached in churches of his own land and in many of the large churches in England. He became the pastor of the British-American Congregational Church in Petrograd, then St. Petersburg, soon after the Gapon rebellion. He lived there three years. Since his return to his own country he has served for ten years in two Boston pastorates, the second of which is his present charge, the Broadway Congregational Church of Winter Hill.

Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel Returns

Dr. Geisel has been returned to Chautauqua this year because of the universal demand. She will give an entirely new lecture this year, and yet one as equally and as timely as the one last year. She was considered by many towns as the star of last year's program. Her connection with the Battle Creek Sanitarium has lasted for a period of twenty-one years. Her lecture will be "Miss Columbia, M. D."

The Children's Statesman."

Wwen R. Lovejoy, known as "the children's statesman," is a platform speaker of exceptional distinction and power. He possesses qualifications not often united in a single personality—a very exact knowledge of his subject, a large outlook, humane feeling, a sense of humor that gives a welcome relief to his treatment of even the most sombre subjects. His topic will be "Children in War Time."

Rev. George Turner, who for seven years has been associated with the Chautauqua, will lecture on "Humanity's Last Reserves." In the course of this talk Mr. Turner will give a lucid explanation of why this country is in the present war. The record of this man alone is a guarantee of an interesting afternoon in his audience.

A Fighter From The Front.

Capt. Leslie M. Vickers, a member of the Royal Scotch Fusilliers, is coming fresh from the scenes of action in Europe, and will relate in a concise and clever manner a description of the "Life in the Trenches." This speaker has a wonderful experience to relate, having spent two years at the front.

Music Entertaining In Character

While the lectures will all deal with the war or its relation to this country, the musical part of the program will be merry and entertaining. Instrumental and vocal members have been chosen for their pleasing qualities, and should appeal to those who like to be entertained in preference to study or critical analysis.

Gilbert & Sullivan's ever-popular comic opera, "Pinafore," is promised with a strong cast. This tuneful opera abounds in pleasing songs of love and of life aboard a man-of-war, with enough comedy to please even the children.

Kerr Singers, in Irish folk songs, will render these popular songs in the quaint costumes of the Emerald Isle.

The Clayton Conrad Co., composed of Clayton Conrad, the "talking cartoonist;" Miss Mildred Saunders, and Andrew Visocchi, will be one of the best entertaining companies on the Chautauqua program. Clayton Conrad, with his "Crayon Conceptions," is a full program in himself. Miss Saunders, soprano, and Mr. Visocchi, accordeon, assist.

"The Fortune Hunter."

Many have heard of the four-act comedy, "The Fortune Hunter." All will be given the opportunity to see it this year. It is to be presented by the famous College Players, and abounds in humor.

Two native Japanese will give a Japanese playlet entitled "On the Road to Tokio," besides Japanese music and dancing.

Batting-Kensington Co.

This company will render a varied program, consisting of monologues, songs, impersonations, and musical sketches, and will be one of the most enjoyable on the program of the whole week.

Sunday's program will be arranged with the local committee, and promises to be as well supplied as in former years.

The above outline of the entire program should attract a large crowd this year. Strong and forceful lectures on war conditions should appeal to all sorts of people as timely and interesting, not mentioning the many excellent musical features offered.
