Obituary and In Memoriam noticescost 5 cents per line, each insertion.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1918.

The Allies are marching on toward Berlin. At the present rate the victory so much prayed for will be here within a year.

To prove our people's appreciation of Chautauqua the guarantee was met and 150 tickets more sold. The name sells the tickets. It grows better with age.

Chestertown and Kent county cannot afford to miss Chautauqua. It is an uplift to our community bringing literary and musical talent of the best and a refinement that is altogether helpful.

Sunday was a quiet day in Kent. The automobile travel was cut down 75 per cent by the order given by the Government. What a saving in gasoline and strength! Why not a little better next Sunday and attend your church and sunday school. It will do you good as well as encourage others.

August Ward, of Somerset, who announced his candidacy for Congress on the Republican ticket, has decided to withdraw. We do not know what was the reason for this act. Maybe he had no show and maybe something else. Pity he didn't act a few weeks sooner and save the taxpayers a considerable sum.

Increased pay for the local draft boards has been authorized by Provost Marshal General Crowder. Under an order announced last Thursday, members of all boards will receive from $50 to $200 a month, the amount varying with the number of registrants on their roll. Fifty dollars will be the minimum, for members of boards with 1,000 registrants or less. Heretofore the compensation has been 10 cents for each registrant.

A WEEK OF PLEASURE

Chautauqua has come and gone leaving in its wake pleasant recollections and sweet memories. The program as a whole was of a high standard and considering the condition of affairs was all that could be expected. Rev. Robert Sutcliff was an ideal manager while his lectures were superb. Miss Duncan, the Junior Superintendent, won the little folks by her tact and good sense and presented a fine play. The visit of Dr. Geisel was the crowning event and her lecture and gospel sermon were worth the cost of the Chautauqua. We shall quote from her lecture at length next week.

Good-bye Chautauqua, we have enjoyed every minute of your stay. Come again.

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP.

Why use ordinary cough remedies, when Boschee's German Syrup has been used successfully for over fifty-two years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis, colds settled in the throat, especially lung troubles. It gives the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning, gives nature a chance to soothe the inflamed parts, throw off the disease helping the patient to regain his health. Sold by Sterling's Pharmacy.

HAND OF DEATH

Word was received here Thursday of the death in Baltimore of Mrs. Rose Frazier, wife of S. M. Frazier and daughter of the late Thomas Dowling, of this county. The deceased had been in her usual health up to about ten days ago, when she suffered a stroke of paralysis. She was immediately removed to the hospital, but the efforts of skilled physicians and the ministration of her loving children were alike unavailing and she passed away on Thursday as stated. She was 65 years of age and a native of Kent county, having passed most of her life in Chestertown, where she had many warm friends. She was a woman of untiring energy and industry, possessing many beautiful traits of character, and the most loving and indulgent of mothers. Two sisters and the following children survive her: Mrs. Rose Alford, Mrs. J. W. Hooper and S. Gleaves Frazier, all of Baltimore. The funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock, interment at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Rev. J. M. Gill officiating.

Mrs. Sarah Louise Whaley, widow of the late Thomas H. Whaley, died at her home at Church Hill last Sunday morning following a lingering illness of tuberculosis. Mrs. Whaley was 72 years of age and had lived in Church Hill for many years. Before her marriage she was a Miss Ellingsworth. She is survived by three children, Mrs. Paul J. Richards, of Wilmington; Mrs. William Cowman, of Baltimore, and Thomas H. Whaley, of Church Hill.

J. Arthur Reed, only son of the late James Reed, and Martha J (Evans) Reed, of Queen Anne's, was found dead in bed at his boarding house in Church Hill Saturday evening, between 8 and nine o'clock. Death was due to apoplexy. Mr. Reed had not been in good health for several months but his condition was not considered serious, although he had been confined to his room for several days. He was 48 years old. While residing in Church Hill, Mr. Reed had been engaged in farming the major portion of his life. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. A. S. Goldsborough, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary C. Wilson, wife of the late W. A. Wilson, died on September 3rd, at her late home in Galena, aged 58 years. She leaves one son, W. A. Wilson and one daughter, Miss Bessie. The funeral took place Thursday from Galena M. E. Church, Rev. Frank Wright officiating. The bearers were Theo. Dempsey, Thos. Caldwell, Edw. Walters, Geo. Dixon, G. E. Hicks, Harry Todd. Undertaker W. T. Hicks.
