NEWSY TIDINGS FROM OUR BOYS

The "News" Will Be Glad To Mention Any Items of Interest You May Send About Your Soldier Lad

Postals have been received from Earle Duyer, Albert Wheat and Edw. Urie of their safe arrival overseas.

Barber Bartley writes from Camp Meade an interesting letter: He says, "The only things that I don't like down here is getting up at 5.45 a. m. every morning and the kitchen work. You get good grub here and plenty of it and so we don't get hungry. All of the boys seem contented to be here."

The Baltimore Sun of Sunday contained the picture of Ensign Samuel W. Scott, assistant paymaster, who has been stationed at Annapolis, but who has sailed overseas. Ensign Scott is the husband of Miss Annie Brock, formerly of Chestertown.

Private LeRoy R. Crosby wrote first from England then from France. He and the other boys are well and enjoyed the trip immensely.

Mrs. Charles H. Jones, of Rock Hall, was surprised and very happy woman about ten days ago when she saw her nephew, Jesse K. Jones, approaching the house. It was reported that he had been among the lost when the Justiana was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine about a month ago. His sudden appearance was the first notice of his safety. With some others of the ship's crew he was in an open boat five days without food or drink before they reached land. All his money and clothes went to the bottom of the ocean. After the torpedoing a German came aboard and bound the badly shattered hand of a comrade, told them which direction to row for land and wished them good luck. Seaman Jones spent several days visiting friends and also went to Betterton where he met a number of old school friends. He is gay and happy and has gone to obtain papers to enable him to return to the service on another ship.

Lieut. W. S. Leaverton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Leaverton, visited his parents at Fairlee and left Baltimore Friday morning for South Carolina, Camp Jackson, a transfer camp, and didn't know where he should be sent from there.

Second Yoeman Albert Rhodes now stationed with U. S. Delaware, spent the week-end with his uncle, John M. Clendaniel.

Somewhere in France, July 1, 1918.

Dear Mother:

At last I have found time to drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and happy.

We arrived safely after a long, yet pleasant journey, but are still a long ways from "No Man's Land."

Therefore, there is still little or no danger for us here as we are just as safe as you are at home.

Everyone seems to be enjoying himself as we get plenty of fresh air and good exercise to keep and put us into perfect trim in case we are called on to go ahead.

This is indeed a lovely country and from many of the views it reminds me of Kent county the way the land rolls. From our drill field you can see form after farm all in one rolling mast, and as the top of the hill on which our drill field lays you can see many a mile.

The people here are very sociable but I think it would be much pleasanter for all if we too could speak French or they could speak English.

When we first arrived we had rain every day which continued for about ten days but since then we have had delightful weather, although it gets quite warm in the middle of the day and very cool at night.

We have taps at 9.00 p. m. which means all in bed and it is still light as it does not get dark here till about 9.30 p. m.

Well I guess I will close as there isn't really much news to tell. So do not worry about me as I am well and happy and am being well taken care of and provided for. So good-bye, give my love to Aunt Bessie and all the rest.

Your loving son,

ELMER BACHELOR.

The following letter was sent to Elmer M. Starr, Pomona, by Marion D. Smith, of near Lankford, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche:

Dear Friend:

Well we left Camp McClellan on June the 9th and we sure was glad to get away for we had been there exactly nine months. We were on the road until the 13th when we arrived at New York. We stopped over at Laurel, Md., twenty-four hours and lots of people were down there to see us. I did not get home of course. I was disappointed, but I have got used to things like that by this time. I never thought much about going home while I was in Alabama, but when I was that close to home I sure did want to get there, but such is life in the army. You never know what you are going to do next, you can only keep going. We left New York on the 15th and was on the ocean 12 days. I sure did enjoy the trip. We only had one rough day and night, and believe me, the ship sure did roll some. In the night you would roll, first from one side of your bunk to the other. We entered a French port on the 27th and have been on the go ever since. We only stay at one town three or four days and some we don't stay twenty-four hours. We have traveled every way from a railroad to hiking with sixty-five pounds on our backs. We have even rode in box cars. The people treat us fine, especially the girls, although we do not stay in one place long enough to get acquainted. Well we sure have saw some of France, but we have nearly got to a point where there is something doing. We go in the front line in a few days and I will be glad when we up and at 'em. Well this about all I can think of for this time. Give my best regards to all the people around, then give my love to aunt Ella and uncle Charlie, will close, write soon,

From a true friend,

MARION.

Lieut. A. Huey Malsberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Malsberger, of Massey, is now posted at Camp Fuller, Paoli, Pa. Lieut. Malsberger resigned his position as receiving teller at the Livestock Exchange National Bank of Chicago, and enlisted as a private in the U. S. Marine Corp on July 6th and on August 26th he received his commission as Second Lieutenant and was assigned to the Signal Battalion as Electrical Engineer. Owing to his constant hard work after enlisting and to his excellent military training at the Virginia Military Institute, Lieut. Malsberger received his commission in comparatively short time. Lieut. Malsberger spends his week-ends with his parents at their home in Massey. His wife is boarding at Paoli in order to be with her husband until he is ordered overseas. His mother visited him at Camp Fuller last Tuesday.

Quite a patriotic meeting was held at the cannery on Tuesday evening. They raised the American flag and then had a free will offering which was given to Mrs. J. W. Urie, Chairman of our Red Cross. This act of loyalty surely is appreciated by the people of this community. We trust other may follow suit for this was a noble example.

The Peoples Bank

CHESTERTOWN; MD.

Depositors in the several Banks in Kent County are receiving approximately

$20,000 Per Annum

MORE INTEREST

on their Savings Accounts than they would be receiving but for the action of this bank in advancing the rate of interest from three to FOUR per cent, thus forcing all the other banking institutions to do likewise.

And the FOUR per cent rate is being maintained today solely by the refusal of this bank to enter into any agreement or combine to put the rate back to three per cent.

Many depositors are showing their appreciation of the benefits accruing to them as the direct result of the action of this bank, as is evidenced by the continued steady growth and increase in deposits—many more would place at least a part of their deposits here if they would take time to carefully consider the situation and conditions.

Because this bank declines to enter into any agreement or combine to reduce the interest rate to Three per cent. it is subjected to unfraternal proscriptions and indignities unknown in banking circles of any other community.

But still we "Carry On."

The Peoples Bank is now OFFICIAL DEPOSITORY, for the U. S. Government, State of Maryland and Kent county.

Good enough for "Uncle Sam," should be good enough for you.

You may deposit in this bank under any or all of three distinct kinds of accounts, viz: Active or Checking Account; Ordinary Savings Account; and Certificate of Deposit, or Time Account.

It will pay you to call and investigate. You will be cordially received whether you do business or not, at

Fall Fashions in Women's Shoes

With Uncle Sam taking hand in the designing of women's shoe fashion there have never been more attractive styles than this season.

Tops are lower, being eight inches. Leathers are limited to black, white, grey and two shades of tan.

Regardless of these restrictions however, the shoe designers have produced some of the finest models in years, and we state with all confidence that you will be particularly well pleased with the results, as shown by the attractive models now on display at our store.

Make it a point to pay us an early visit and get first hand information on "What is right in style" for Fall.
