

Last evening at 11:45 I was taking a lady to Union Station and went through Oliver st. from Mr. Royal avenue.

Sitting on the corner of Mt. Royal ave. and Cathedral st. on the lunch room steps were three men and as soon as we passed one of them called to us and made some remark, he then started and followed us to near Charles street on the other side of the street keeping up insulting remarks all the way calling across the street.

This is not the first time things like this has happened in the neighborhood by these drunken loafers on that street; have had the same experience several times before late at night coming home being accosted by some of them for money and get abuse. I am not the only one who has had the same trouble in this locality.

There are several saloons, one the corner of Mr. Ave. & Oliver and one next door, which is a regular rendezvous for such men. Can't the neighborhood have better police protection.

Yours truly,

From one who lives in that section."
