MY SON

My son has gone before
And paved a way for me
I sorrow now no more,
Mine eyes his footsteps see
They lead through blood and tears
They lead away from me,
They draw me through the years,
They set my footsteps free.
My son has gone before—
His courage now is mine;
He left an open door,
A pathway and a shine.

When
You Fight--Fight

FIGHT as these American soldiers fought in the streets of Fismes. "They covered themselves with glory," the papers say. Of course they did—they are Americans.

They met the finest of the enemy's troops in a terrific hand-to-hand struggle. They used their guns—their bayonets—their bare fists. Every American soldier went after his man desperately, fearlessly, persistently, with one great driving purpose—to whip that Prussian Guard, to silence its machine guns—to win!

It's a pretty good way to fight—this American way. It wins battles over there, it will win a splendid victory over here—if we fight when we fight—if we buy Liberty Bonds to our utmost.

When you fight—fight! When you buy—buy!

Lend the way they fight—Buy Bonds to your utmost
