Why Not Be Sure?

CONFUSION is frequently caused by depending too much on others for prompt and accurate delivery of business and social messages.

There's one way to be sure that your message has been received as yo meant it—by telephone.

Telephone talks make business more certain. There's no delay—no worry. Distance makes no difference.

The rates on all classes of calls are reasonable. There are special reduced evening and night rates on station-to-station calls. The pages in the front part of your directory give full information.

Why not do away with uncertainty and delay by using the telephone?

The operator will gladly give you the rates to any point.

CHURCH NOTES

Mr. Charles F. Jefferson is attending the Wilmington Conference in session at Cambridge as delegate from the M. E. Church of Chestertown. Mr. Jefferson has attended every session of this conference for the past forty years and looks forward to it every year with great pleasure.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Services for Sunday, March 26: S. S. at 10 o'clock, L. W. Ford, Supt.; preaching at 11; the C. E. service at 7.30 will be in charge of the Temperance Committee and the W. C. T. U. The quarterly conference will meet on Monday night.

Rev. O. E. Jones and the other ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kent County are attending the annual conference of that church in Cambridge.

The refrescoing of the pulpit of the M. P. Church here has been completed by Mr. Schmidt, of Baltimore, in a most skillful manner. He helped in the original work at that church in 1887. The whole church and Sunday School will likely be refrescoed later. Mr. William Sappington, formerly of this town, assisted Mr. Schmidt.

Rev. George Clarke Peck, one of the ablest preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, says of Lent, which is being observed by many churches in Kent County at this time: "Lent is a shadowed lane forty days long. But the way of Lent is not necessarily gloomy. It is like a path through the woods when the day is feverishly bright and oppressively warm. Everybody loves the path through the woods, with its scent of trees, and vivid green, and a brook by the wayside. Outlines are sharper than under a blazing sun. Earth is a kinder, more restful place. Moreover, one has a chance to think. Thank God for the shadowed lane. And so for Lent. For the man or woman who will use it, Lent is a cool, sweet path, dim enough to be restful, but broken by glints of light from above. 'Tis a flowered way too; though the flowers are wood flowers, modest and sweet. There are moss-pillows for weary heads. And always a brook by the way. We shall need to do most of our work in the broad day where the sun beats and the winds of competition smite. Thank God, then, for the soul refreshment and restoration which Lent affords.

Rev. Robert K. Stephenson continues to improve under treatment at the Methodist Hospital in Philadelphia. He has been invited to continue as pastor of Silverbrook M. E. Church, Wilmington.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks say Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Chestertown case:

Thomas Clements, retired farmer, 108 S. Mill St., gave the following statement August 16, 1916: "I suffered an atack of backache and whenever I would bend or stoop over, I would suffer sharp pains in the small of my back. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my home for several years, I took some and haven't been troubled since. I bought this excellent medicine at Toulsons Drug Store."

On January 25, 1921, Mr. Clements added: "Whenever my kidneys trouble me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always do me a great deal of good. I have never found anything to equal Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clements had. Fister-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
