

Emory Grove Camp Meeting,
Detail for.

A communication, as follows, was received through the hands of the Marshal, and upon the approval of the Marshal, it was ordered that the detail of officers as requested be made:

"Baltimore, Md., July 15th., 1911.

Thomas F. Farnan, Esq., Marshal of Police.

Dear Sir:---Last year you very kindly favored the Emory Grove Camp Meeting Association with the services of two officers on each of the three Sundays of Camp, which was very much appreciated, and we now request that you again favor us with the services of two officers during the three Sundays of Camp in August of this year.

You are doubtless aware very large crowds attend these meetings on Sundays among whom are many Baltimoreans, and while we have never had any serious trouble - the people attending being very orderly, - yet we feel the presence of the officers has great weight with the crowds.

Trusting you will be able to accomodate us, we remain,

Very respectfully,

CHARLES P. CLEVELAND,
CHARLES H. EVANS,
J.R.Jolly,

Dates:
August 6, 13 & 20.

Committee."

(See Exhibit No. 3481.)

Saloon, - Raids.

Communication, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed, see Exhibit No. 3482:

"Baltimore, Md., July 17, 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I give you below reports received from the Southern District, as to violations of the Sunday Liquor Law, Sunday, July 16th., 1911, namely:

Patrolmen J. W. Simpson and T. P. Ipes raided saloon of Franz Jakob, 1200-02 Towson street, where they found two white men in the place. Jakob was arrested on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. The case was dismissed by Justice Robert H. Carr.
