THE WAR IS OVER!

Peace Declared Thursday—Germany Concedes Everything and Surrenders—A Great Time in Chestertown.

The news that Germany had surrendered and laid down her arms was received at the News office at 1.45 p. m. Thursday. Immediately the News man with Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., agreed to strat the glad tidings to Chestertown by ringing the two Methodist bells and then followed Prof. White with the school bell, Prof. Blades with the town clock, and finally every whistle and bell in this vicinity was echoing the glad news. Flags and bunting were brought out and parades held by young and old. Dinner bells and all sorts of contrivances to make noise were brought into use., Misses Lillian Hicks, Cora Robinson and Ollie Estes found an old auctioneer bell and kept it going.

At night a big bonfire was lighted on the Square.

In the Lyceum a splendid United Peace Work Campaign was launched. The speakers were Hon. J. Charles Linthicum, Herbert Roberts, Y. M. C. A. Secretary, Charles Eugene Powers, Esq., of Baltimore, and others. Splendid singing was rendered by Mr. McCann, of Baltimore, and Miss Helen Rouse, of Chestertown, with Miss Elizabeth Reed accompanist. A. M. Culp had charge of the music.

DEATH OF JOHN WALLS

John Walls, a well-known citizen of Galena, put an end to his life Monday afternoon by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. Before doing so he had cut his wife's forhead so that six stitches had to be taken and had also fired his pistol several times. There is no question but what he did the deed while suffering from a deranged mind.

He had been employed at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds for some time, and had returned to his home in Galena Saturday apparently in the best of health and spirits. He leaves his wife and one child seven years old. He was formerly a prominent liveryman of Galena, and for many years carried the mails between Georgetown and Lambson Station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was 50 years old.

ELECTION RETURNS IN KENT

The election in Kent was a tame affair. While Price lost the county by 58 it was really as well as could be expected when all the conditions are considered. The Republicans confidently expected thrice this majority.

The apathy of voters is really appalling. Many even forgot it was election day while others had to be sent for, reminded to vote and all kinds of methods used to get a decent vote out.

The total registered vote in Kent is 3698 while the number of votes cast Tuesday was only 2640, a falling off of a thousand.

The colored vote was out nearly to a man excepting those away and they made few mistakes in marking.

Those Democrats who exerted themselves Tuesday deserves credit for the work done and Kent under the circumstances did well.
