To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

Several days ago I made application to hold a boxing exhibition at Oriole Park on Friday night, July 21st., 1911, and after receiving word from you gentlemen that the permit had been granted I found it impossible to secure the boxers for this date, as one of the principals had a previous engagement, and I was compelled to change the date to Monday night, July 24th., 1911, and I wish you gentlemen would please grant me permit for the later date. Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH BARRETT."
