

and Mr. Charles E. Angel of the same address.

After reading over these reports I cannot see that the officer did anything to merit charges being preferred against him, and would, therefore, recommend that the complaint be ignored and filed.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

(See Exhibit No. 3487.)

Donation.

Upon the recommendation of the Captain of Detectives, approved by the Marshal, it was ordered that Detectives Thomas A. Berney and George W. Davis be permitted to retain Fifty Dollars, donated to each, by the authorities of Atlantic City, N.J., for duty in Atlantic City on the occasion of the Elk's Convention, July 10th., to 17th., inclusive.

Detective Herman Pohler.
Complaint vs.

A report, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed:

"Baltimore, Md., July 20th., 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I attach hereto letter from Captain Joseph McGovern, Captain of Detectives, and report from Detective Herman Pohler, as to the escape and re-arrest of Alice Gibson, and after reviewing the matter closely, I am of the same opinion as Captain McGovern, that Detective Pohler should be reprimanded and cautioned by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

The Marshal was directed to call Detective Herman Pohler before him and to reprimand him for his neglect of duty in this case. (See Exhibit No. 3488.)
