Local Notes

The Queen Anne's Court adjourned until Monday, January 27.

The County Commissioners have allowed W. G. Strong $3.50 each for 40 turkeys killed by dogs on his place in Piney Neck. He has about 100 more turkeys which he is carefully watching.

W. T. Bloxson, Jenkins Bridge, has recently shipped several thirty-two quart crates of second crop Climax strawberries. Three crates netted him $43.21, having sold at 50 and 55 cents per quart by M. L. Coulbourn, commission merchant, Philadelphia Mr. Williams, of near Chester bridge, also had enough second crop berries to make a Sunday dinner on Victory Sunday.

One of Kent's progressive farmers carried a check home for over $700 for his milk last month. He will likely get a bigger check this month. A Queen Anne's farmer who brings milk to Chestertown received a check for $750 for his last month's milk.

The Ford touring car belonging to Van B. Wilmer, of Spaniard's Neck, was stolen while standing on the street in Philadelphia, one day last week. Mr. Wilmer had a quantity of valuable clothing and a new robe in the car at the time. While the police were notified at once, nothing has been heard of the whereabouts of either the car or clothing.

The big store-room of R. F. Parks & Son has been rented to Graham & Thomas, hardware dealers. The awning has been removed and other changes will be made so as to let in more light. The transfer will take the place at once.

The School Board of Talbot paid all teachers for the month during which the schools were closed on account of the Flu. Checks were sent last week, but one teacher returned hers with the statement that she had not earned it, and asked that it be credited to her school for some useful object. Maybe she had a plenty with out it. The Kent teachers were paid also but we have heard of no one refusing it. They have use for all they get and none of them get too much in our opinion.

Angelina Wright, a faithful servant in the Justis family for many years, died near Locust Grove Nov. 2nd in her 78th year. She was the daughter of William and Charlotte Wright, colored.

In Cecil county there are three preachers who have been called upon to teach in the public schools, viz., Dr. Edmund Burke, of Cecilton, Rev. A. P. Dupuy, of Leeds, and Rev. Alfred Lee Jones, of North East. Each is from a different conference.

The following "four-minute" men addressed audiences in the Lyceum Theatre during the week past in the interest of the War Work Fund Campaign: W. Robert Huey, C. Norman Jefferson, Fred. G. Usilton and Thos. D. Bowers.

The public schools of the county will be closed next Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Being unable to get a supply of coal, the school commissioners were compelled to close the following schools last week: Chesterville school taught by Miss Catherine Myers and Janvier school taught by Miss Mildred Melvin; and the colored schools at Coleman and Fountain or Big Woods. Dr. E. J. Clarke has been in Philadelphia this week in hunt for coal and expects some here next week.

T. G. Wroth has purchased the house on Kent street owned by Miss Fannie DeCorse.

Local merchants are offering 70 cents for eggs in trade.

The insurance business heretofore conducted by H. L. Boyd will be continued by his son, Bernard, who has removed here with his family from Jacksonville. Claude F. Parks will also have an office in the room with Mr. Boyd in the News building.

There were 20 persons tried this week for having no license for their dogs. The fine is about $4 and the license $2. It pays to get a license.

The Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church was splendidly entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Hope B. Hudson.

The case of John Bartley versus H. L. Dodd for $5,000 damages for personal injuries was called for trial at Easton Thursday but because of absence of important witnesses for plaintiff it was postponed until next May.

Turkeys are quoted at 35 cents alive and 40 cents dry picked. Mrs. W. T. Edwards at Pomona sold three for which she was paid $19. Geese are bringing 20 cents. Some of Kent's ladies have fine flocks of turkeys. They deserve every cent they bring for the care of them.

There are 1,500 licensed hunters in Queen Anne's.

HAND OF DEATH

Joseph M. Watkins, one of Baltimare's best citizens, died of apoplexy Friday afternoon while in his office, aged 61. He was an auditor of the B. & O. R. R., and a valued official. He leaves a widow, Harriet C., a sister to Walter B. Strong, and several children. Mr. Strong attended the funeral which was held from his late residence 2219 St. Paul street Monday.

After a long illness and much suffering, Miss Mattie B. Cleaver, daughter of J. A. Cleaver, departed this life in Middletown on Saturday morning. She was in the 41st year of her age and in early life met with a serious fall which in a great measure made her a great, but patient sufferer during her entire life. Her mother died about seven years ago, since which time she had been her father's sole companion, performing her household duties faithfully, oftimes suffering most intensely. She was indeed a devoted, faithful daughter. Funeral services were held at her late home on Tuesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, Dr. Francis H. Moore conducting the services; interment being at Hickory Grove Cemetery. The pall bearers were John B. Cleaver and Bright Cleaver, her two brothers; W. H. Green, of Philadelphia, and Julian G. Cleaver.

Preston Jones, aged 27, died in New York last Saturday of pneumonia. The deceased was the son of D. Paul Jones, formerly of this town. On account of delicate health of his children Mr. Jones removed to Arizona about 15 years ago. Preston, who was the youngest child graduated at the University of Arizona, and for some months past has been acting as secretary to the embassador of U. S., in Switzerland. Returning to New York several weeks ago he was attacked with influenza which developed into pneumonia and caused his death. He is survived by his father and one brother, Paul, a prominent artist in New York. Mr. Jones accompanied the remains of his son to Chestertown Tuesday when the interment took place in Chester Cemetery, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp officiating; Chas. L. Dodd undertaker. The President of Arizona University was here and made a ost strikingly beautiful address at the grave.

William Lee, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, died at the home of its parents on Friday last of influenza, age 5 weeks. Funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp; interment in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Dr. Pere W. Perkins, the third, son of the late Isaac Perkins, of this county, died at his home in Golliersville, Tennessee, Tuesday, Nov. 12, of pneumonia. He leaves, besides his brother, Mr. Al Perkins, of the South, two sisters, Mrs. E. W. Wroth and Miss Henney Perkins, of Westminster, Md., a son and seven grandchildren. Dr. Perkins left Kent county soon after the Civil War, studied medicine, graduated and built up a large practice. He leaves many friends to mourn his loss.
