Commencement Activities In Full Swing At Washington

President Meade Will Address Graduates Sunday

Dr. Gilbert W. Mead, President of Washington College, who will deliver his first baccalaureate sermon to Washington graduates at those services in William Smith Hall, on Sunday. The President's admonishments to the graduates will be accompanied appropriate music, furnished by the College's musical organizations.

A visiting, newly-elected President from neighboring St. John's, a prominent member of the United States Senate, a prominently mentioned candidate for Governor of Maryland, and a new President handling his first Commencement program at Washington College will be on the boards in William Smith Hall when the 152nd graduating class of "Old Washington" receives its sheepskins on Monday, June 11.

Amos W. W. Woodcock, St. John's new chief executive, will be awarded an honorary degree at the exercises, along with George L. Radcliffe, the much-talked-of compromise candidate for Maryland's governorship. Senator Hugo L. Black, Alabama, investigator for the ocean and air mail subsidy case, has been secured to handle the assignment of commencement speaker and President Gilbert W. Mead, of Washington College, will be presiding at his first commencement at the local institution.

At ten o'clock, Monday Morning, the Commencement exercises will take place in William Smith Hall, Dr. Mead will preside and will be assisted by Dr. William R. Howell, Registrar, Hiram S. Brown, Chairman of the Board of Visitors and Governors, and S. Scott Beck, Secretary of the Board, in the presentation of degrees and prizes.

A feature of the Commencement exercises on Monday, which will be of interest to all Washingtonians, is the presentation of the portrait of the late Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth, president of Washington College from 1923 to 1933; who died last November shortly after assuming the presidency Alfred Universitp. The portrait, the work of Maurice Molarsky, will be the gift of alumni and friends, and clubs of the thirty-fourth district of Rotary International, of which the late Dr. Titsworth was a former district governor.

With the Commencement program Monday morning the school year at Washington College will be terminated.

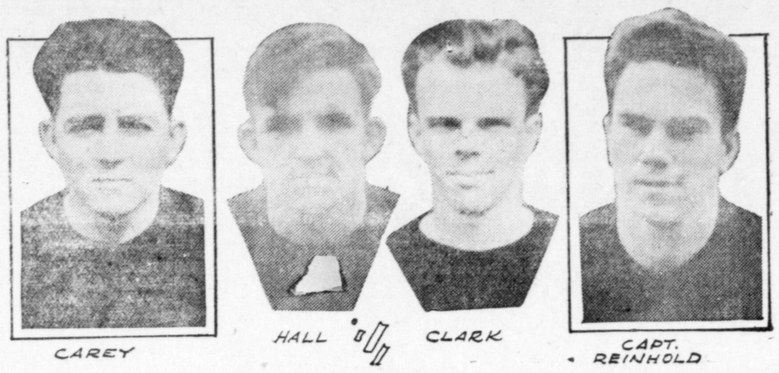
Seniors In Athletic Swan Song . . .



The four men pictured above, after completing their years of inter-collegiate sport at Washington College, will make their departing gesture on Kibler Field this afternoon when they perform against the Alumni in the exhibition lacrosse game scheduled for two o'clock. Reinhold, lacrosse captain, has had the honor of being Washington's first and only All-American sports star, having been chosen last year as the choice of experts on the mythical lacrosse team selected from the nation's best.

TRADES PIGSKIN FOR BATON.....

Last night at the Washington College gymnasium those who danced to the alluring modern music might not have been aware that the musicians who provided it look to Tim Crowe for their orders. Yes, the same Tim Crowe who, in the first days of "Waterbury on the Hill," was a football player of generous proportions, a gridiron performer who helped give the Shore institution a couple of its few good years in football.

A powerfully-built, hard-plunging back, Tim Crowe plunged and bucked his way to football fame in Maryland as a member of the Maroon team. Later, in Connecticutt, he played semi- pro football with fair success.

FLASH..... EDDIE KEENAN EXPECTED BACK TODAY!

Washington College's two-tons of alumnus rolled into one man is expected to return to Chestertown for the first time since he quit these parts for the police force of Waterbury, Conn. Eddie Keenan is expected to be here for the Alumni Day activities today...that is, if the freight is on schedule.

Oldsters To Meet The Varsity In Ball Game Today

Bobby Cavanaugh, '28, who will perform with the Alumni tossers on Kibler Field this afternoon, in the annual Alumni-Varsity Baseball game. Bobby is now head coach of Pennsylvania High School, Cumberland.

This afternoon up on Kibler Field, three o'clock, the Alumni baseball players—those fellows who still think they're as good as they were in college—will play the varsity, and many will be the aches and pains tomorrow.

At the time of going to press, Coach Tom Kibler stated that he expected enough erstwhile diamond stars from other years back on the campus to put a full team on the field to oppose the regulars. "Bobby" Cavanaugh will be on hand, and is in good shape, having spent the spring days training with his high school nine up in Cumberland. And then there's "Skinny" Rayne, from Kenneth Square, who is another former Washington star in fairly good shape from playing and coaching his high school teams. The Derringer boys, Harry and Duncan, can be looked upon to don suits this afternoon, and "Dutch" Dumschott will more than likely appear in uniform. Jimmy Johns, too, is liable to be out there for the old men, and Roy Woodland will be on hand.

The real problem for the Alumni will be the pitching assignment, and its possible that Coach Kibler will provide much-needed help from his under-graduate ranks.

Tonight, in the gymnasium and cafeteria, the annual Alumni Dinner dance will be held, with a break in between the dinning and dancing to allow for the election of officers for the ensuing pear.

Earlier in the day, at 1.15, the Elisha Cullen Dick Memorial Library will be decicated in Reid Hall where it is located.

Will Get Honorary Degree . . .

Amos W. W. Woodoock, onetime head of America's Prohibition Enforcement office and lately-named President of St. John's College, who will be presented the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the Commencement exercises at Washington College on Monday.

Washington Whirl

By Ralph Harries

All things, be they good or bad, must come to an end...and so, the first volume of the Washington Whirl (catalogue it according to your own whims and fancies) concludes with this issue. We have had much pleasure in writing it and certainly hope that you have enjoyed reading our attempt at column writing. We have written with the respect of everyone uppermost in our mind, and have tried not to offend...but if anyone feels that their toes have been stepped on, we offer our sincere apologies.

In this, our "swan song" we would like to give a few personal reflections...by the time this comes off the press all grades will have been handed in to the office, so we can't be accused of "hand-shaking." First of all, a few words about Dr. Davis, the new head of the language department...you know there are two types of individuals, those who start off with a bang and then fizzle away like a fire-cracker, and those who start off in low gear, like an automobile, and gain momentum and power as they go along...Dr. Davis is a wonderful example of the automobile type of person... his popularity has reached untold peaks since last September...more power to him and congratulations to those who brought him here.

Isn't it so that we (including the town folk) do not fully realize the fine faculty that we are fortunate in having? There is Dr. Carpenter known thruout the world for her research work...Prof. Dumschott who, according to a student who Pay Homage To His Memory . . .

It will be the gift of alumni, friends and clubs of the thirty fourth district of Rotary International. The above photograph of the late Dr. Titsworth was taken during his early days at Washington College.

NEW GULF PROVES POWER IN TESTS AGAINST 32 GASOLINES

Will you get better performance if you switch to the new Gulf gas? Read this . . .

A SERIES of power tests on famous hills in New England, in the Middle Atlantic States, and in the South have proved this . . .

All leading brands of gasoline are not alike! Their power varies widely. And of 33 gasolines, the new Gulf gas shows uniformly greater power. 7 times out of 12, it pushed a car and heavy load farther up mountain grades than any other gasoline tested!

Prove Gulf's greater power! Drive into a Gulf station. Fill up with that Good Gulf. Then "step on it"—and get a thrill.
