THE KENT NEWS extends congratulations and best wishes to the many graduates of college and Schools in Kent. We give our best wishes that their future endeavors will be crowned with abundant success. May their lives be filled with useful service to their generation and above all else crowned with seeking after things worth while.

THE Talbot County Commissioners have set the tax rate in Talbot for this year at 85 cents.

The county rate, which is 7 cents above that set last year, was necessitated by the elections to be held this fall and by the added expense of finishing the jail and several other incidential expenses.

The plays at the College Thursday night were well attended and proved a success. James T. Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Anthony, is the author of "Death Comes At Twilight," one of the three one-act plays. This is the first occasion on record in which a student has authored one of the commencement presentations.

GALENA

William Sweeny and sisters, Miss Eleanor McCauley and friend, of Philadelphia, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Wilson Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott and son, of Chevy Chase, were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Boyd.

William Stradley, of Wilmington, visited his sister, Mrs. George C. Johnston and Mr. Johnston part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadley, Jr., Mrs. Annie Moore and Miss Catherine Thornton visited Capt. Walter T. Hadley in Osteopatic Hospital, in Philadelphia, on Saturday.

James D. Davis and Clara Virginia were Baltimore visitors Saturday.

Captain and Mrs. J. W. Blount moved on Friday from the Freeman house to the Wilson house in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dixon moved last week-end into part of the Hadley house.

Miss Anna Stradley and Jack Newnam, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with their parents.

The Ladies' Aid Society held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnston.

Mrs. J. Richard Redding was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Caldwell, near Chesapeake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock and children, Junior and Marcia, of Prospect Park, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Irving W. Spry and family, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Redding were Sunday guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Redding and family, near Worton.

Word was received on Tuesday that Miss Carrie M. Dempsey is improving after a tonsil operation at Beebe Hospital, Lewes, Del.

Miss Mary and Eva McCauley friend, of Philadelphia, were Memorial Day guest of Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Children's Day services will be held in Galena M E. Church.

Looking 'Em Over

By BILL USILTON

Purely Personal Piffle

Funny that people who take exception to the things we write in this space never come to us with their grievances, but tell everybody in Kent County about them...For the purpose of taking all the responsibility of what might be said in this pillar is one reason why we sign our name at the top...

****

Henry Plant, who now bursts forth as a hostelrymen in Betterton, was Secretary of the 17th Ward Depublican Club of Philadelphia for five years...And he wasn't even a citizen of the United States!

****

Uncle Murray Frazier has dropped down from Philadelphia for a few days, just to see that we handle the set-up of his "Do You Recall" properly...And to gather a few more interesting facts for that piece which is becoming the most popular feature of the Kent News...

****

The town council's action in passing an ordinance against the ringing of the fire siren under false pretenses just goes to show you to what metropolitan devices this town of ours is stooping. We will next be burdened, I suppose, with receptions for notable guests, at which the Mayor will present keys to Stam's Hall...

****

Paul Sipala, local shoe-ster, found the long arm of Il Duce all but touching him the other day, when he was on the verge (and did, later) of joining the ranks of the newlyweds...Paul had been requested to return to Italy before he took a spouse, and then to live once again in his native land...But he chose otherwise, and was all set for the leap when he thought of Mussolini's request. The call to the Motherland was great, but Paul's love for America, Chestertown, and all that went with it prevailed...So, he will continue to mend our soles...

****

So that you will be forewarned in case she accepts the offer, we have extended the courtesy of this space to Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland; who has expressed a desire to appear in print with some choice remarks for the especial benefit of William Saulsbury, the Curbstone's Aristocrat...The offer has been made, however, with the stipulation that the ethics of the prefession be observed, and that she will not cast reflection upon that which has been loaned for her own ends...You know...as I've found myself...it is hard to write of things and have them read as you wrote them, without much practice...

****

I am actually at loose ends...For two weeks now I have been foiled in my attempts to secure copies of the Queen Anne's Record and the Centreville Observer. You can well imagine my trepidations, to have two full weeks fly by without word from the place where it seemed that murder would out at any moment ...I hope that Charlie and Owen are as well as can be expected under the circumstances...

****

It is Will Toulson's opinion that Quaker Neck should have a candidate in this free-for-all Sheriff Derby, which seems to be developing in Kent county...He is confident that Doc Biddle, with a few quarts of honey, could earn a victory. With all of his experience Doc should have little trouble with these buzzing political bees...

Harry Massey, Church Hill's gift to the motor industry, will follow his pony to the Canadian races this summer in a specially-constructed house-on-wheels, which is built to accommodate four persons and is complete with cooking range, electric refrigerator and dining table.

Harry's colt has been initiated into the world of racing, and will compete in the sixty-five day meet at Montreal...He is so wrapped up in the colt that we wouldn't be surprised if two of the sleeping bunks will be used by the galloper...

****

What now, little men and women, what now?...To you graduates, high school and college, we know that the question of employment is one of major interest. That may find work, a job, a meal ticket, is our sincere wish...But it is also the duty of pessimists like us to remind you that humility goes better with the world than cocksureness.

This world of ours, and yours, too, is not waiting with open arms to greet you. In fact, it is darned sorry that another crop is on its doorstep and lined up with the millions seeking jobs.

Take anything for a starter, and, from that, maybe you'll get something better.

This place you live in will be what you make it, and we trust that most of you will find happiness. All can't, but by going at life with the right attitude the percentage of failures can be reduced...Go to it, then, keep that smile and your sense of balance...Take what you can; but remember, that to take you must first give!

NOTICE TO ALL DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS ON PERSONAL PROPERTY.

We publish herewith a ruling from the Attorney-General on the law governing the sale of personal property for taxes.

The law governing the sale of personal property for taxes in Kent County.

The local law on the subject may be found in Article 15, Sections 152-156, Black's Code of Public Local Laws. Section 154, relating to sales was amended by Chapter 310, Acts of 1933, and authorizes a sale of the property of a delinquent, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay the taxes with interest and costs. The general method of procedure is set out in Article 81, Sections 189 and 190 of Bagby's Code of Public General Laws (1929 Euppl.) section 190 indicates that sale of personal property may be either at the Court House door, or on the premises where the levy is made.

Under the Law I will advertise and sell all or enough of the personal property of all delinquents for 1930-1931 on the premises where they were levied upon if taxes are not paid on or before June 20th. This means all personal property that has been levied upon for 1930-1931
