11 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon.

There was a large attendance of former parishoners and friends of Old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church on Sunday for the annual celebration of Old Friends' Day. The services began at 11 o'clock in the morning with the sermon by the rector, the Rev. William Wyllie, followed by a basket picnic under the ancient oaks of the churchyard at noon. The afternoon was devoted to addresses and social intercourse with the renewing of old friendship among those who had formerly worshiped at the ancient shrine, which is one of the oldest on the Eastern Shore.

"Times Are Not So Tough", Claim

We are indebted to the Polk County Record for the following which appeared in the Anderson (S. C.) Daily Mail, written by Geo. McGee, who says times are not hard. Here is the way George puts it:

"Don't talk to me about hard times. I was born and raised 8 miles from a railroad, 3 miles from a river, 5 miles from a school house, 9 miles from a church, 885 miles from New York, 200 yards from a wash-hole, 15 feet from a cornfield, and 8,567 miles from Hongkong.

"Our nearest neighbors lived two miles away and they couldn't read and write either. I never saw a suit of underwear till I was 17 years old and that revelation didn't belong to anybody in our family. The only book in the house during my early childhood was a Bible and an old catalog that somebody sent us.

"There were 12 members of our family, but you see, we had 3 rooms to live in, including the dining room which was also the kitchen. Everybody worked at our house. We thought everybody else in the world had gravy and bread for breakfast, liver and crackling hoecake for dinner and buttermilk and corn pone for supper—'cause that's what we had—and we liked it.

"Some of us wore brogan shoes occasionally in the winter time. We had nice white shirts for summertime use. We slept on straw ticks, and pillows were not thought of or required. I didn't know that money would rattle till I was nearly grown. Father got hold of 2 half dollars at the same time and he let us hear them rattle. Taxes were higher then and harder to pay than now.

"We owned two kerosene lamps, neither of which had a chimney. Our house wasn't ceiled, but two of the rooms had lofts in them. We had a glass window in the company room. Our nicest piece of furniture was a ho-made rocking chair. Our beds were of the slat or tight rope variety. The "trundlebed" took care of age and it stayed full all the time.

"We went to school 2 or 3 months in the year, but not in a bus. We attended church once a month, but not in a car—we used 2-mule wagon. We dressed up on Sundays—but not in satins and silks. We neither wrote letters or received any. We made our own lye hominy distilled our own lye from our own ash-hopper. We drank sassafras tea and never yearned for coffee.

"We stepped our own molasses, we ate our own meat, we considered such a delicacy that only preachers should eat; we had heard of cheese, but never saw any; we knew of some store-bought clothes, but we never hoped to wear any; we got a stick of candy and three raisins for Christmas and were happy; we loved ma and pa and obeyed them. We were rarely ever sick. Never hungry, enjoyed being naked, didn't want much, expected nothing—and that's why our present so-called hard times ain't so hard to me."
