"Everyman's Gasoline"

A REPLY by the Standard Oil Company (N. J.) in the May issue of its magazine, "The Lamp," to the findings and charges of the sub-committee of the U. S. Senate appointed to investigate conditions in the petroleum industry—a reply in which the true position of this company, its policies and actions, are frankly set forth.

Also in this number, an article by Dr. Warren K. Lewis, head of the Department of Chemical Engineers of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on the possibilities of "dollar gasoline"; an analysis of the sub-committee's use of figures by R. L. Welch, Secretary of the American Petroleum Institute; a resume of the current crude oil situation; and letters and newspaper comment inspired by the report.

A copy of the magazine may be obtained free of charge from the Standard Oil (N. J.) agent nearest you, or by request addressed to The Lamp, 26 Broadway, New York City.

ESSENTIAL in all building—

EVEN in the average reinforced, all-concrete building the cost of the cement used is only 6% of the total cost.

Yet Portland Cement is lower in price than any other manufactured product.

Your building material dealer can advise you where it is best to use cement, and where to use other materials. His experience should be utilized in your plans and you can rely on his judgment in the selection of the best brand in any building material line.
