Facts and Fancies

We wonder why the Chestertown P. T. A. hasn't advanced a candidate for County Commissioner, therby preparing the ground for their fight this Fall for improvements in the disgrace on the Avenue?...Uncle Horace Beck has joined the Postoffice gang, and you'll find him sitting most any night... Thomas Healey's police court, now too large for the jail office, has been moved to the Court House...Doc Hines, away at camp, is missed along the local Rialto...

They do say that the black and Polish vote in Baltimore will give Gov. Ritche the nomination, and carry him through the election... Uncle Willie Blackway's gate across his porch has caused talk on Herring Hill. But we know that its only to keep the dogs away, and not what some would like to believe...Walter Kulley, one of the master printers, is suspected by some of being a Benedict...Though the trees may fall along Maple avenue the mail boxes are sprouting. Replaced by the tree-loppers, the letter receptacles have been erected higher than that....

From the letter which appeared in the Diplomat's space we learn that one of the local scribers rates the "400"...With both factions of the Democratic party keeping hands off the Sheriff's race, we wager there will not be three names on the ticket when the Primary approaches...There can't be any truth to the rumor that Mayor Satterfield left town at this time to escape the criticisms of those who oppose the Maple avenue pruning.

Doctor Howell, who likes golf, circulates a petition objecting to the postal changes in order that he may continue to wind up his dictation before noon.

The question of a candidate for the Clerkship is a moot one in the Anti- group of Democrats...The storm Wednesday night recalled, though in milder form, the twister of last August, what with streets dark and everyone yelling from house to house excitedly...

There it stands, the hospital, a monument to nothing in particular, a useless building with no purpose, waiting, we hope, to be taken over by Washington College as an infirmary; thereby affording a means for some good to come of it. Offhand, we think of several arrangements whereby its facilities could be shared by college and county... Miss Harriett Welch, in Seattle, arrived in San Francisco just too late for the general strike...And we are sorry to hear that Doc "Buck" is ailing.

A young lady, stranded at the Voshell House in Wednesday evening's storm, called for and found Steve a ready rescuer...Conlyn Noland has just found out who sent him a sympathy card, when he was ailing, and made him pay over-due postage to get it...A re-boring of the ear tubes and a complete pumping of the alimentary canal puts H. S. Are back into the news-gathering field fully equipped. Of course he will say that it was to afford us a handicap, but he got that way on the beach at Rehoboth.

If we listened to all we hear the woods are full of Famous Kent Countians; especially now that the Primary draws nigh ..The checker gang gathers at Barnett's at noon... Is Walter Barnes among the newlyweds?...This sheet has carried lots of controversies between its pages but the Christian Science—Methodism spite that has been going on for weeks is beyond me. It all started when we used a piece of month-old plate to fill in for lack of reading matter, and it happened to be a Christian Science lecture. Ho, Hum!

Down our way if the Town Council seriously thinks of lopping off the Water Street trees, the waterfronters will submit a bill for many dollars; which will cover all their time and materiols for filling in that street with their ashes and dirt ...Take our word for it that the Chesapeake Bay Bridge project isn't a dead issue by any means...Mrs. Westcott might be interested to know that it is Joyce Kilmer, and not Wilmer...In view of the severe fight being waged against indecent movies you might be interested to know that the demand for motion pictures necessitates the production of 520 features a year. And what else is there to write plays about if it isn't love, which must essentially have at least a hint of sex, and murders or crimes? In this world there is good and bad. The bad is shown on the screen, written about in books, or dramatized on the stage; and ninety-nine times out of a hundred the whole plot centers about the triumph of good over bad. The public itself is wholly responsible for the type of pictures that they get.
