465 Styles of Dollar Dress Goods

A good many buyers of goods believe that dress goods makers frequently sell their dollar line of goods at a loss—for effect. Certain it is that the dress goods here this season at a dollar a yard are marvels of textile value. So popular has the price become that we have widened the line to almost bewildering variety—and all in all, Wanamaker Dollar Dress Goods bid fair to win new fame for this store from Maine to California and down in Dixie, too.

Viewed by current prices, two-thirds of the dollar goods here are being sold at a loss. Only careful and fearless contracting, far back, makes today's values possible.

Four hundred and sixty-five styles of dress goods at One Dollar are on show. Here is a list of them—

Colored Dress Goods in Salon—

Six-shade two-toned changeable Poplin, all-wool, 42-in.
Two-toned all-wool Whipcord Diagonal, nine shades.
Evening shades of silk-and-wool Lansdowne.
Evening shades of silk Moreen—a newness from Paris.
Silk-and-wool and all-wool Cream Henriettas.
All-wool Figured Novelty—weave for Children's Coats.
Silk-and-wool Brocade, evening shades.
All-wool Light Blue and Garnet Waffle Cloth, for cloakings.

In Black Dress Goods Section, north of center—

50-in. Cheviot. Rough or smooth and imported or home made.
42-in. all-wool Figured Armures.
45-in. all-wool Granite cloths.
45-in. all-wool Sail cloth.
A slight weave difference of the same family.
44-in. Wool Frieze, striped and figured. Its roughness is its beauty.
48 to 54-in. all-wool Serges.
The bread and butter of a dress goods stock.
45-in. all-wool Henriettas.
40-in. silk-and-wool Henrietta.
44-in. all-wool Merino.
42-in. all-wool Whipcord.
45-in. Mohair Sicilian.
These are some of the all-the-year-round fabrics classed as staples and desirable.
44-in. all-wool French Poplins.
42-in. all-wool French Camel's Hair.
42-in. Satin Soliel. Almost like silk, but made of the finest wool. The makers claim it won't spot and will retain its bright finish until worn out.
Old fabrics in a new dress and foremost in favor for good dressing.
42-in. Lizard Cloth.
One of Priestley's fabrics that wins friends each day.

In Fine Plain Goods Section, East of Main Aisle—

46-in. Whipcord Coverts. Three styles of weave and twenty-one shades.
45-in. Melange Satin Coverts. Seven colorings. Very dressy.
45-in. all-wool Crepe Cheviot. The crepy weave gives it a newness. 15 colorings.
50-in. all-wool Serges. Storm Serges and Dressy Serges. Big and little twills. In almost any color you can ask for.
48-in. all-wool French Poplins. 10 colorings. These are at the low tariff cost.

In Plaid and Colored Cashmere section—

Poplin Plaids. The richest shades over plaided with cluster threads of the brightest silk, 3 styles, 18 colorings.
Drap d'Ete, one of this season's newest fabrics. Not as the old way of making them, but in dress weight. 30 shades.
More than one hundred shades of Velutina. Street or evening shades. Near like Silk Velvet at much less cost.
Twenty-four styles of English Corduroy. Very nobby for Coats, Waists and Bicycle Suits.

In Wool Novelty Section—

We show fifteen styles and ninety-one different color combinations of modest novelties. They are from our best American mills and the best dress goods centers of Europe. High colors woven in neat figures with the more sombre shades, giving richness and newness.

Boys' Reefers THE wooliest looking cloth may be dreadfully deceitful. Our acid pot is a great truth finder. We never buy a piece of clothing till the boiling acid says "pure wool." And many a little swatch of "all wool" advertised elsewhere at lower prices than ours, leaves a big bunch of cotton in the tell-tale boiling pot.

We prevent such things happening here, by testing before they come.

These shaggy, fleecy chinchillas and beaver cloths don't hide a thread of cotton. Yet prices are as low as the would-be kinds—

BOYS' REEFERS AT $4.50—

For boys 7 to 16 years old; of handsome chinchilla; some wool lined, velvet collar, bound or double stitched edges. Others Brownie Reefers, with velvet collar; Jack Tar Reefers, of chinchilla, with velvet collar, buttoned to neck, ages 3 to 9 years. Sailor collar Reefers, collar of self goods, buttoned to neck; bound or stitched. For ages 3 to 8 years.

All at same price—4.50 each.

Reefers at $5.50, $6.50, $8.50 up to—

The $12 sorts—of brown or blue Montagnac, with velvet piped edges, lined throughout with silk.
Handsome Military Reefers, for boys of 3 to 10 years, in twilled overcoatings, kerseys, chinchillas and novelty cloths, in green, blue and brown. $8 and $10.

Coats for the Little Ones AMERICAN children are the best dressed tots in the world—the American mother takes a constant pride in the appearance of her little ones; hence the prettiness, the cuteness of the garments prepared to help her in the effort. We don't go to Paris for these; because they make them prettier here at home.

Word hints of the new coats—for ages 2 and 3 years—

At $4—Coats of pretty novelty cloth in red, brown and blue mixtures; plaited collar; collar and sleeves neatly trimmed with mohair braid.
At $4.50—Coats of ladies' cloth, in brown and green; large circular cape; collar, cape and sleeves trimmed with white mohair braid.
At $6.25—Coats of ladies' cloth in cardinal, full pointed collar; collar and sleeves trimmed with several rows of black silk braid.

Sassafras Items.

Messrs. Robert S. Griffith and W. H. Spry are fond of going fishing together and they are usually successful, for they generally bring home with them quite a supply of the floundering treasures.

Mrs. Gertie Johnson, who has for some time been confined to her bed with sickness, is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Dr. Tarbutton is having her beautiful residence repainted.

Pastor White has announced to commence protracted services at the M. P. Church in Sassafras on the second Sabbath in this month.

The M. P. Church here will soon undergo repairs and repainting.

We shall be sorry to part with Messrs. Chas. Griffith and Jacob Wright who have rented farms elsewhere and will soon leave us. May the place they leave behind be filled with equally as worthy citizens.

Rev. W. W. White was called to Quantico, a former charge, on Tuesday last to unite in marriage Mr. Albert Robinson, of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Emma B. Graham, of Quantico, Md.

The third Quarterly Conference, of Warwick Circuit M. P. Church, has been called to meet in Warwick on the second Saturday in this month at 10.30 A. M.

IF what "they say" is true a mint of money was spent to "down Gorman" in Maryland last Tuesday. It was all "honest money!"

MILLINGTON NOTES.

The election passed off very quietly here. There was no disorder of any kind.

The 39th annual meeting of the local preachers and exhorters association of the M. E. Church of Easton district will be held in Asbury M. E. Church in this town next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 12th, 13th and 14th.

Mrs. Ada Unruch, of Oregon, a speaker of national reputation will speak for the W. C. T. U. next Friday in Asbury M. E. Church.

Mr. Adolphus Davis is very sick at his home on Sassafras street.

Mr. Howard Smith and wife spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smoot.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

The election passed off very quietly here resulting in a decreased majority for the Republicans.

A little four-year-old-tot looking out of the window exclaimed there is a mocrat out there! Well, it seems as if there are some in Kent still.

At the plling place, here, everything worked along quietly, without much confusion, and the result of the count did not seem to surprise either party's leaders in this district.

Some months ago a dog bit George W. Moore, colored, of Georgetown, not far from here, about the ankle. From the effects of the bite he has been rendered almost unable to walk, at all, and he seems to be growing gradually worse.

Mr. Samuel Clark was taken with a severe cold last spring. His lungs are still very much involved and his general health is failing.

Mr. Thomas Willis, near Rees Corner, is ill with fever, but is better at this writing. Dr. Thomas B. Willson is his physician.

Daniel Butler has been a great sufferer for two or three weeks. Dr. Hines and Whaland operated on him giving him some relief.

Mrs. J. Welch Crew, of Lankford, has been very sick with pneumonia, but we gladly state that she is convalescent.

Mrs. J. C. Staats and son are on a visit to relatives and friends in Middletown.

Miss Lillie Bramble, Chestertown, has been visiting her sister and friends in our town.

The service at Salem, tomorrow (Sunday) morning at 10.30 in the interest of temperance will be very interesting. Mrs. Ada Unruh from Oregon, nat. organizer and lecturer will be present and address the meeting.

Mr. E. W. Dill, of Baltimore, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Hyson Dill, near here.

The Mite Society of Salem will hold a very interesting meeting at Mrs. G. W. Bramble's on next Friday evening. Those who are members of the society and all members and friends of the church are invited to attend. It will be an evening of pleasure.

Mr. T. H. M. Bramble led his ticket by 5 in this district. Mr. Noland led his ticket by four.
