One of the sweetest, most unassuming pictures of the season is booked for a showing at the New Lyceum Theatre for Monday and Tuesday evenings, and it has an abundance of uproarious comedy in it which promises an hour of keen enjoyment for those who see it. We refer to "Springtime For Henry," which comes to the screen after a phenomenal run on the Broadway stage. Otto Kreuger and Nancy Carroll have the leading roles of this comedy which has to do with the efforts of a bachelor to stay single despite the advances of two young ladies who are intent upon making him their husband.

The cast of "Springtime For Henry" also includes Heather Angel, Herbert Mundin and Nigel Bruce, all capable players whose performances add much to this thoroughly entertaining piece.

For Wednesday and Thursday "She Learned About Sailors" is the featured attraction at the New Lyceum Theatre. A riotous story of the gobs ashore, this film offers Lew Ayres and Alice Faye in the leading roles, with Mitchell and Durant those hilarious Broadway comedians, offering their goofy antics to the delight of all who view it.

The story of this film has to do with a long range love story, in which Mitchell and Durant play the part of rough and tumble cupids, substituting their idea of love letters for the ones that Lew Ayres has been forwarding to Alice Faye. Consequently everything becomes muddled and the boys finally resort to trickery to get the pair married. Riotous fun prevails from start to finish, and the result is pleasingly light entertainment.

Betterton Casino Theatre

Betterton, Maryland

Tonight at the Betterton Casino Theatre "Riptide," starring Robert Montgomery and Norma Shearer, is the featured attraction; bringing to the screen one of the best screen comedies of several years—a sophisticated yarn that fairly bugbles with laughter.

For Monday and Tuesday evenings "Prize Fighter and The Lady," starring Max Baer, Myrna Loy, Primo Carnera and Jack Dempsey, will be the featured attraction. It is in this film that Baer and Carnera boxed a full fight even before they entered the ring for their classic battle which gave the Californian the cahmpionship; and it is in this film that Max Baer found out that he could act as well as swap punches. An interesting romance runs along throughout the picture, while Myrna Loy provides a feminine touch to the film that is hard to excel.

For next Friday and Saturday "Men In White," the Pulitzer Prize-winning Play, will be the featured attraction on the screen of the Betterton Casino Theatre. Once again Myrna Loy will be seen on the screen, this time opposite Clark Gable. An elaborate supporting cast has been assembled to assist the stars in bringing a gripping portrayal of this unusual film, and advance reviews hail it as the best of the year.

"Show me a field I can't plow"

THIS expression, often heard from an owner of the new Case Model "L" Tractor, shows the absolute confidence he has in his tractor's ability.

The tractor backs him up on it, too. Light and compact, it weighs but a trifle more than three draft horses—no excess weight to be pulled around. More power is available for useful and profitable work.

Other advantages include a fast, irreversible steering gear which relieves the operator of shocks and jerks from the front wheels . . . hand operated clutch within reach from the ground or tractor seat . . . handy controls easily worked . . . swinging drawbar for easy steering and making short turns with full loads . . . practically automatic lubrication.

Come in—see and decide for yourself that the many advantages offered in this new tractor and in the smaller Model "C" as well as in many other Case farm machines are just what you need to make your farm work easier and more profitable.
