"Baltimore, August 22nd, 1911.

To the Marshal and Police Board,

Gentlemen:-

We the undersigned do make this our appeal to you craving the privilege of opening and holding religious services in house No.924 Pennsylvania avenue, on first floor front, which is a store front.

Learning from Police Station the law, it is the object of the Christian Church and its followers as well as disciples to be law abiding citizens as well as good christians.

As unchurched christians or disciples we had secured this site to shelter us whilst we work for the Master. Will you please help us thus much by granting us permit for same. for which we will feel ourselves under many obligations to you.

We are yours for the betterment of humanity and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom.
