Patrolman George H. Tienken,
Complaint against.

A report, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed:

"Baltimore, Md., August 28th, 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

Relative to the attached unsigned communication, complaining of the officer who patrols the post on Webb st. between Central avenue and Eden street, beg to say that the officer who patrols this post is Patrolman George H. Tienken, Northeastern District.

I had Patrolman Tienken before me yesterday and apprised him of the contents of the letter received by your Honorable Body and instructed him to give this section of his post especial attention and prevent further complaint.

Patrolman Tienken informs me that the author of the en-
