Ritchie Declares For Gas Refund For Oystermen

KENT NEWS:

You are authorized to publish the following statement from me:

Under the present law the motor boats used for pleasure are entitled to a refund from the State gasoline taxes paid by them. Work boats are not entitled under the present law to similar refunds.

This discrimination against the work boats does not seem fair, particularly, when the owners of these boats have nearly all suffered very considerable from the depression. Therefor, if re-elected, it is my intention to recommend to the next General Assembly legislation giving the work boats the same right to a refund for the gasoline taxes paid by them, such refund amounting to four cents per gallon.

ALBERT C. RITCHIE.

Arthur Brice, the Democratic Harmony candidate, voted against this unfair tax and was among the fighters against its passage. It is gratifying to all watermen to have this assurance of its repeal by the Governor.

Skull Of Horse Found In House

Workers In 1858 Put Relic There As Luck Charm

W. A. Hurlock, near Rock Hall, while renewing the weatherboarding on the place known as The Kimbolton Farm found the skull of a horse's head. Written on the skull were the names of men employed in remodeling the house August 25, 1858, as follows: Wm. R. Glenn, owner of Kimbolton; Frank Johnson, boss carpenter; J. W. Coleman, boss plasterer; W. H. Collison, Tom L. W., G. C., W. H. and John A. Glenn.

The horse's head came from the horse belonging to Dennis Vickers and was located between first and second floor above ceiling. It is a superstition that if the skull of a horse is located in the ceiling of a house it makes the violin music sweeter besides bringing good luck to the inmates.

More Than 80 New Students Expected At Washington

Activity Brisk On "Hill" As Faculty Returns To Begin 153rd Year At Shore College

The hustle and bustle which has heralded the opening of Washington College for 152 Falls is again in evidence on the "Hill" in preparation for the opening of Freshman Week at the Eastern Shore institution when more than eighty new students are expected to enroll. On Wednesday, Sept. 12th, the Freshman Week activities will begin, carrying through until the following Monday when the upper classmen arrive to begin the actual year.

Up until last Wednesday eighty students had enrolled for the new class of '37, and of this group twenty of them were from Kent county. Twelve of the Kent county students are residents of Chestertown. Eighteen students of the new class will come to Washington College from States other than Maryland, which include Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticutt, New Jersey, Delaware and Virginia. This group of eighteen out-of-state students represents a larger number of "foreigners" to enter Washington than heretofore, and authorities are confident that the publicity resulting from the Roosevelt visit here last fall is responsible for this increase.

Faculty Back In Harness

This week witnessed the return of the doctors and professors to Washington College from vacations and summer activities at other colleges, and already they are in the harness and ready for the youthful seekers after knowledge. The following paragraphs give the summer activities of the Washington faculty:

Dr. William R. Howell, and wife: motoring through the provinces of Canada.

Dr. Fred. G. Livingood, and family: enjoying the summer months with friends and relatives at Myerstown, Pa.

Dr. Esther M. Dole: At George Washington University, and six weeks teaching at Alfred University summer school.

Dr. Gertrude Ingalls: research work in the Yale Library at New Haven, Conn.

Dr. Kathleen Carpenter: vacationing in the Adirondack Mountains.

Dr. Arthur L. Davis and wife: research work in the libraries of University of Chicago and University of Wisconsin.

Prof. Lawrence Ford and wife: summering at the home of Mrs. Ford's parents in Brantford, Ontario.

Mrs. Ethel S. Fox: studying library administration at George Washington University.

Prof. Fred W. Dumschott: completing work at George Washington University on his Ph. D.

Prof. Florence Snodgrass: vacationing in Nova Scotia.

Prof. Paul Solandt: vacationing in New England.

New Professors Named

Dr. Gilbert W. Mead, President of Washington College, announced on Wednesday the appointments of two new faculty members to the staff at the local college. Wilbur J. Robinson was named to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Lorene Tuta, as professor of chemistry and assistant in mathematics. Dr. Robinson has just completed three years as professor of Mathematics at Ohio State University, received his A. B. at Ohio Wesleyan, and his Ph. D. at Ohio State.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. John D. Makoskey, Dr. Mead announced that Dr. Winton Tolles, a graduate of Hamilton College, had been secured. Dr. Tolles has for two years been instructor in English at Hamilton College, and more recently completed three years as head of the English department of the Bound Brook High School, in New Jersey. He has completed his residence for Ph. D. at Columbia University.

Arthur Brice, As Senator, Will Ably Represent Farmers, Watermen And Others; Strong And Hubbard Receive Acclaim Of Kent County Voters

Leonard Wilson's work as Commissioner Deserves A Promotion

Candidates For Commissioners And Others On The Harmony Ticket Worthy Of Generous Support

The Primary campaign is about over and next Wednesday the voters will express their choice of the men who shall be their candidates for the coming election on the Democratic ticket. It has been a fight with very little bitterness and we predict that the men nominated will be elected in November.

Democrats interested in the economic management of the affairs of the county and in the success of the Party, after consulting various men in different sections of the county and at a largely attended meeting presented a Democratic Harmony Ticket. This ticket consists of Organization and Anti-Organization men. The men on this Harmony Ticket are of high character and willing to give unselfishly and whole heartedly of their time and talents to promote the welfare and best interests of their fellow citizens.

Arthur H. Brice, of Betterton, candidate for Senator is a farmer. He is a graduate of Washington College, and a life-long Democrat. He has served as President of the Board of County Commissioners which particularly acquaints him with the needs and problems of the county. He has served two terms in the Maryland Legislature through which he has gained an unusual knowledge of the Legislative routine and particularly fits him to ably represent Kent county in the Maryland Senate. His reputation and life in this community is beyond reproach.

Roy Strong, of Gratitude, is a candidate for the Maryland House of Delegates. Mr. Strong is a farmer with an unusual knowledge of the problems of the watermen. He is a man fully qualified to represent Kent county in the Legislature.

Wilbur Ross Hubbard, of Chestertown, is a candidate for the Maryland House of Delegates. He is a lawyer, a graduate of Yale and Georgetown Universities. Aside from his legal practice he has managed a number of farms in this locality during which time he has taken an active interest in various farm organizations and has been an active worker for those things which have greatly benefitted agriculture in Kent county.

The candidate for Clerk of the Court, Leonard Wilson, of Millington, is widely known in Kent for his industrious work for the taxpayers. As President of the County Commissioners he has helped to lower the tax rate to 84 cents and to stand as a bulwark of strength against large expenditures. He is always on the firing line for his Party, in season and out,, and his District never fails under his leadership to roll up a fine vote for the nominee of the Democratic Party. Be sure and vote for Mr. Wilson and show your appreciation of his splendid administration of the county's business.

Ringgold Jones, candidate for Register of Wills, is well-known in Kent for his unselfish service to his friends and Party. "Ring" is an ideal candidate. He is a friend to the watermen especially.

Samuel C. Loller, of Worton, candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. Loller is one of Kent county's intelligent farmers. He is a member of the Board of County Commissioners and with Mr. Wilson and Charles D. Wood has successfully managed the affairs of the county for the past four years and through economical administration has brought about a substantial reduction in the countp tax rate.

Ellsworth C. Leary, of Rock Hall, candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. Leary is a man of ability and has interested himself in all civic enterprises that have benefitted his community in which he lives. He is serving his second term as Mayor of Rock Hall. He is President of the Kent County Chamber of merce and President of the Maryland Waterman's Protective Association. Mr. Leary will make an able commissioner.

Andrew Y. Wilson, of Georgetown, is the third candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. Wilson is a farmer and manages a number of farms in his locality. He is a waterman and has taken the lead in working toward their interests. His business ability fits him for the office which he seeks.

Walter T. Morris, Jr., of near Chestertown, is the candidate for treasurer. He is a farmer, a gradate of Washington College, a leader in local farm organizations and one of the pioneers in 4-Club work in the county. He has offered his services in the Maryland National Guard and risen to the rank of Supply Sargeant. He is a young man who enjoys an enviable reputation in the county and is fully capable of the trust of the office which he seeks. He is a representative of the young voters being 28 years of age.

Dr. E. A. Scott, of Galena, candidate for Judge of the Orphans' Court. As Chief Judge of that court is sufficient to assure him of reelection without opposition.

George R. Rasin, of Kennedyville, candidate for Judge of Orphans' Court, is a retired farmer and has served one year as judge in that court having been appointed to succeed Judge Groves, which experience fits and entitles him to election to that office. He is one of Kent's gest citizens and familiarly called "Dick" Rasin.

Harry Stavely, of Fairlee, is a candidate for Judge of the Orphans' Court. Mr. Stavely has spent his entire life as a farmer and is regarded as one of our best agriculturalists. He is a man of good judgment, honest and well equipped for a judge of the Orphans' Court, and deserves the support of the Democratic voters of the county.

Finally, there are the members of the State Central Committee and delegates to the State Convention as follows: Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland, Mrs. Pricie M. Watson, Wm. H. Cooper, Mrs. Mary S. Massey, James W. Crouch, Elmer S. Jarman.

For Delegates to State Convention: Wm. E. Greenwood, Pomona; Charles L. Dodd, Chestertown; Jas. H. Groves, Kennedyville; E. Scott Thompson, Chestertown; W. B. F. Cranor, Quaker Neck; Tilden G. Wilson, Chestertown R. R.

Take a slip in the booth with you with the names of these candidates and mark in the box opposite each name and thus prove your faith and confidence in the leaders of your party who have only the tax-payers interest at heart.
