NEWS NOTES

THE NEWS' Rock Hall writer says: The home of John A. Hersch has been filled this week by relatives among whom were his sister, Mrs. M. L. Sumwalt, and her grandchildren, Misses Delma Thomas, Grace Sanders, Nettie Lear and Rev. Jno. W. Sumwalt, pastor in charge of Eutaw St. M. E. church in Baltimore.

JAMES NOWLAND, of New Castle, reports that he has just arrived from a tour through Maryland, during which he visited several farms owned by him in Kent and Cecil counties. He states that the trees in one of his orchards are laden with peaches and the yield of the farms was never more promising.

JESSE L. SHEPHERD has sold for Mrs. Caulk, his mother-in-law, the hotel property in Galena, now occupied by W. B. Robinson, for $1500. John Manlove is the purchaser.

MASTER FRED KIRK, of Perryville, was stung by a kissing bug at Tolchester Beach Thursday evening. The child's lip and face swelled to enormous size in an hour. The little fellow suffered very great pain. Luckily Dr. Geo. Taylor was on the steamer and relieved the boy in a short time.

JOHN DICKINSON and wife have sold to Mary E. Harrison the tract of land in Spaniard's Neck, on Corsica river known as "Wright's Chesterfield," containing 123 acres, 1 rood and 9¼ perches, for $5,500.

THE NEWS reporter at Rock Hall writes: This seems indeed to be the saddest part of the year. Vegetation dying, leaves falling and worst of all the summer girls are nearly all gone and several long months and sometimes even years may pass before we meet again.

THE Crouch Automobile Company, of Baltimore, raced one of its machines two miles against time at Timonium fair last Friday. Carrying two men the machine did the two miles in 5 minutes and 23 seconds.

Here's a Big Georgia Melon.

The Times has received a letter from Mr. John W. Zeigler confirming the report of the 143-pound watermelon, mention of which was made in our Tuesday's edition. The melon was raised by B. F. Zeigler and John Manning, and they have six others that average 124 pounds each. Mr. Zeigler sent a melon to Mr. Walter Lane yesterday that weighed 134 pounds. The Zeiglers are good farmers, who raise everyting in abundance but cotton.—Valeosta, Ga., Times.

THE MOSQUITO QUESTION.—The Baltimore World of Thursday says: "In Chestertown and Centreville the question is being discussed whether or not mosquito power would furnish an available substitution for road traction engines and automobiles. A young man in Millington, it is said, has succeeded in hitching eight large mosquitoes to his bicycle and glides over the smooth country roads with the grace and rapidity of a Venetian gondola in the Grand canal."

This is not half as bad as it is in Baltimore. Mr. H, of Chestertown, says the mosquitoes tried to lift him out of bed and carry him out the window but was prevented by the shutters!

Very truly yours,
