

Kahl's Saloon.Off-Ferry Bar.

In the matter of the sale of liquor in pavilion off Ferry Bar, as referred to numerously in minutes of previous proceedings, an opinion as follows was received from the Board's Counsel, viz:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 30th, 1911.

The Board of Police Commissioners,

Court House, C I T Y.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to the sale of liquor at Ferry Bar which has been referred to me, I understand the facts to be as follows:-

George Kahl is the owner, as lessee or otherwise, of certain property at the Baltimore City end of the bridge spanning the Patapsco River that connects Baltimore City with Brooklyn, in Anne Arundel County.

Upon his property, the Baltimore City end of the bridge, and within the limits of Baltimore City there is a building owned and occupied by him and conducted as a saloon for the sale of liquor.

At one time, and until within the last twelve months, Kahl's property and saloon, within the limits of Baltimore City, was by him connected by a permanent pier built upon pilings with a pavilion at the outer end of the pier where liquor is also sold.

His pier started from the Baltimore City shore and extended beyond the boundaries of Baltimore City out into the waters of Baltimore County.

With his pier thus constructed he conducted a saloon at the shore end of the pier in his own name as licensee, having obtained a license from the Board of Liquor License Commissioners to sell liquor in Baltimore City, and at the pavilion on the outer end of his pier a saloon was conducted for the sale of liquor in the name of someone else who obtained a license from the Judges of the Circuit Court of Baltimore County.

I am further informed that the pavilion at the outer end of the pier is used only for the sale of liquor on Sunday, although it is ostensibly kept open during the week.
