NEW LYCEUM THEATRE
Chestertown, Md.

Bringing a story with a different twist to the screen of the New Lyceum Theatre, Janet Gaynor appears on Monday and Tuesday evenings in "Servants Entrance" as the featured attraction of the talking screen for those evenings. In this amusing tale Janet is once again suported by Lew Ayres, who appeared with her in "State Fair," and the supporting cast includes such players as Walter Connolly, Ned Sparks and Louise Dresser.

"Servants Entrance" is the story of a rich girl yho yearns to cook, and escapes from her wealthy surrounding to serve as maid in order to accomplish her wish. In the unusual capacity of slave to another's needs, Miss Gaynor finds life a burdensome thing and her adventures are many. The whole story, which has a twisted finish unlike any we've heard of, makes for entertainment that ripples along to a happy ending.

For Wednesday and Thursday the New Lyceum screen will play host to a mighty trio of film favorites. Shirley Temple, youthful vixen, Carole Lombard, voluptously sophisticated, and Gary Cooper, hemannish and good-looking, are the triad which will be seen in "Now and Forever," the screen feature for these evenings, and there's entertainment of the highest order in store for fans.

"Now and Forever" is a rollicking story of a reckless man and woman who find joy only in the hazards of life, such as swindling and gambling. But the advent into their lives of Shirley Temple, the daughter of the man, changes the whole outlook and there's a mighty struggle on his part to hit the straight and narrow for his daughter's sake. However, his past companions continually pop up to haunt his existence, and it is in a desperate and thrilling finish that he at last triumphs over these enemies to his happiness. For thrills, little laughs and action, "Now and forever" is hard to beat."

For Friday and Saturday that blustering, voluable, eccentric and talented gentleman, W. C. Fields, will be the featured attraction with his versatile troupe of performers in "The Old-Fashioned Way." Cast as The Great McGonigle, Fields appears as the manager of a traveling stock company in the gay nineties, and the play which is produced by this group in all of the tank towns is "The Drunkard." So hence, you not only view the hilarious W. C. Fields in "The Old Fashioned Way," but you also see two plays for the price of one—and Fileds will tell you in no uncertain terms that it is more than worth the price of admission.

Seriously though, "The Old-Fashioned Way" comes to the local screen with the best of recommendations. Fields is said to be at his crazy best, and the supporting cast includes Baby LeRoy, Jack Fulhall, Judith Allen and Joe Morrison.

W. C. Fields as "The Great McGonigle," backwoods Barrymore, who leads his repertory company to all the Opr'y Houses in Paramount's "The Old-Fashioned Way," showing on Friday and Saturday, October 5 and 6, at the New Lyceum Theatre. Also featured are Baby LeRoy, Joe Morrison, Judith Allen and Jack Mulhall.

Hits Scheduled For October

Manager Emerson Russell has announced the booking of several distinguished pictures for showing at the New Lyceum Theatre during the month of October. Among them are Bing Crosby's "She Loves Me Not;" Mae West in "Belle of the Gay Nineties;" Will Rogers as the redoubtable "Judge Priest;" Cecil de Mille's classic, "Cleopatra," with Claudette Colbert; and Fox's musical Extravaganza, "Caravan."

COUPLE CELEBRATE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The 50th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Thomas was celebrated at "Providence Farm," near Centreville, on Sunday with all of their living children, six sons and two daughters, present.

Mr. Thomas, of Centreville, Md., married Miss Annie Harper Collins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Collins, of Dover, Del., at the Collins farm near Dover on September 23, 1884. The late Rev. Thomas E. Martindale, D. D., pastor at that time of Wesley M. E. Church, Dover, was the officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas after their marriage came to the Eastern Shore to reside, living for several years on the old Paca Estate, on Wye Island, and in recent years have lived on Providence Farm just outside of Centreville, on Kidwell avenue.

Those present at Sunday's celebration included the children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas: Elmer C. Thomas and son, of Chestertown. Other relatives included Mrs. Henry Beck and daughter, Miss Margaret Beck, of Centreville, Md., and Houston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Mrs. Roberts, Horace W. Beck and daughter, Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were the recipients of many useful and substantial gifts including several gifts of money.

TASTY BROILED STEAK

"Simple as A·B·C"

SAYS DOROTHY E. SHANK, Director Of Magic Chef Research Kitchen

"MANY WOMEN have a false idea that broiling is difficult and complicated. Once upon a time it was. Broiling, like frying, baking and boiling, can be a trying task if you do not have modern equipment.

"The drawer type broiler with grid now built into Magic Chef gas ranges provides against fat catching fire. Drippings are drawn quickly away from the flame. Chances of causing excess smoke are extremely slim.

"In our Research Kitchen we have put the Magic Chef drawer type broiler to every conceivable test. With ordinary care, any woman can broil juicy, delectable steaks, fish, chops, fruits, and vegetables. For remember, you broil on a grid —not on a rack."
