

In view of the recommendation of the Marshal, as above,
it was ordered that permit applied for by the Rev. R. J.
Curtis be granted.
(See Exhibit No.3525.)

Rev.R.J.Curtis.

Application for permission to hold religious services

at 1101 Carrollton Avenue.

In the matter of the application of Rev. R. J. Curtis, for permission to hold religious services at 1101 Carrollton Avenue, a report, as follows, was received, viz:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 29th, 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

With respect to the request of the Rev. R. J.
Curtis, colored, to hold religious services in house 1101 Carrollton avenue, I beg, respectfully, to state that I referred this matter to Cap't. John J. Santry, Northwestern District, for an investigation and recommendation.

It will be noted from the report of Cap't. Santry herewith, that the vicinity in which these services are to be held is composed mostly of colored persons, and I would therefore respectfully recommend that the request of Rev. Curtis be granted.

Very respectfully,

THOS.F.FARNAN, Marshal."

In view of the recommendation of the Marshal, as above, it was ordered that the permission applied for by the Rev. R. J.
Curtis be granted.
(See Exhibit No.3525.)
