

Patrolman Patrick Kearney.

Complaint of Frederick Kisten, against.

In the matter of the complaint preferred by Frederick Kisten, 2628 Lehman street against Patrolman Patrick Kearney of the Southwestern District, of unofficerlike conduct, a report, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed without further action, viz:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 28th, 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

I attach hereto reports of Captain Thomas B. McGee, Mr. Thomas Ruckle, 23 Hafer street and Mr. George J. Stivers, 6 Hafer street, relative to complaint of Frederick Kisten alleging unpolicemanlike conduct on the part of Patrolman Kearney of the Southwestern District.

After perusing Patrolman Kearney's statement to Captain McGee, as well as the statements of the two witnesses, I am convinced that the officer acted properly and within the scope of his authority, and I would, therefore, recommend that complaint of Mr. Kisten be ignored and filed.

Respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

(See Exhibit No.3526.)
