A report as follows, was received, read and ordered filed, see Exhibit No.3531, viz:-

"Baltimore, Md., August 28th, 1911.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

I am in receipt of the following report from the Northern District as to gambling at private residence, 2329 Madison avenue, viz:
"Sergt.Fred'k.Seibold, Patrolman P.W.McLain and Alex.Hobbs, N.D., raided private residence, 2329 Madison avenue, about 2:30 a.m., August 27, 1911, and arrested Louis Rosenbush, Harry Gutman, Silvin Smith, Henry Rose and Gabe Rosenbush.
Louis Rosenbush was charged with knowingly permitting a gaming table to be kept on his premises, 2329 Madison avenue, third floor, and the others were arrested on the charge of gaming by shooting crap. The case was dismissed by Justice White.

Respectfully,

THOS.F.FARNAN, Marshal."
