msa_sc2915_scm1012-0120 ©Maryland State Archives and Thomas Iglehart to Indemnify them for advancements made by them for repairs of the Church as members of the Committee appointed for repairs at the same time the resignation of John Mercer was received as bestrymen also John F. Mercer was unanimously Chosen a bestryman to fill the Vacancy.

On Wednesday Augt. 9th 1813. The bestry met were present Thomas H. Hall Jos. N. Stockett Daniel P. Jacobs Thomas Iglehart Richard H. Battee and Saml. Harrison, and at the same time the Rector bestrymen and Church Wardens gave a Bond of Conveyance to Saml. Harrison for the Glebe Land and at the same time received his Bond for the purchase money which Bond is left in the Hands of Jos. N. Stockett.

A list of Communicants 1813

Col. Richard Harwood	Mrs. Margaret Brogden
Mrs. Lucy Harwood	Miss H. Valett
Mrs. Margaret Waters	Mrs. Elizabeth Howard
Miss Betsey Battee	Miss Eleanor Howard
Mr. Thomas Stockett	Miss Margery Howard
Mrs. Henrietta Harwood	Miss Patsey Howard
Miss Ann Stockett	Miss Kitty Howard
Miss Rachel Hall	Mr. Thomas Leitch
Mrs. Ann Iglehart	Mrs. Deborah Duncan
Miss Ann Iglehart	Mrs. Martha Hall
Mr. Richard H. Battee	Mrs. Rachel Hall
Mr. Jos. N. Stockett	Mrs. Rachel Harrison
Mrs. Sarah Stewart	Miss Eleanor Harrison
Mrs. Eleanor Iglehart	Miss Nancy Harrison
Mr. John Iglehart
Mrs. Eleanor H. Cowman
Miss Henrietta Hall

On Saturday October 28th 1813. The bestry met. Were present Thomas H. Hall Samuel Harrison Thomas Iglehart Richard H. Battee and Joseph N. Stockett and at the same time the bestry determined as William Stewart had not finished the Corn House and Stable as contracted for that the bestry has requested Mr. Samuel Harrison to employ a man to finish said buildings and they would be answerable to him for it.

On Easter Monday 1817. The bestry met for the purpose of Electing a bestry for the present year, and it appeared that William Stewart, Thomas H. Hall Joseph N. Stockett Benjamin Franklin Samuel Harrison Richard H. Battee, Thomas Iglehart and Daniel Jacob were Elected, and Solomon Sparrow and John Iglehart were appointed Church Wardens.

On Easter Monday April 7th 1817. The bestry met for the purpose of Electing a bestry for the present year, and it appeared that William Stewart, Thomas H. Hall Joseph N. Stockett Benjamin Franklin Samuel Harrison, Richard H. Battee Thos. Iglehart and Daniel P. Jacob were reelected bestrymen and William Sanders and Richard H. Hall were appointed Church Wardens.

July 8th The bestry met for the purpose of appointing a bestryman in the place of Richd. H. Battee who has resigned, and John Iglehart was unanimously Elected in his place.

John Hall and John Stewart to be recorded as members of the Church by request.