Special Police Officer,
Application for Appointment of.

Communication was received from F. W. Findling, Secretary, Western Athletic Club, asking for the appointment of William A. Allers as Special Police Officer for duty on and about lot belonging to the United Railways & Electric Company, Columbia avenue.

Inasmuch as the grounds referred to used by the Western Athletic Club for athletic games is not the property of the said club, and as the said club is not incorporated, the Board decided it had no jurisdiction in the premises and the application referred to was denied.
