msa_sc2915_scm1012-0278 ©Maryland State Archives

Nov. 5. Vestry resolve that "the debt due the Rev. Walter McGowan's heirs" be discharged from the rent of the Glebe.

June 20. 1789. "The Vestry met on the lower part of the old Glebe near the head of a Cove called Lamb's Cove".

Capt. John Merriken & Thomas Stinscom showed the vestry certain boundary marks of which record is made.

Vestry agree to propose to compromise & with Mr. Chase, Mrs. Hannah's lawyer

Aug. 1. 1789 Vestry agree with Benjamin Fish to serve as Clarke or Regester, till Easter Monday and to pay him £4.10.0 for his services [It was too much for such wretched spelling & writing]

Thomas Lod is to have his farm for £20.1.0

Mackubin so spelt afterwards

John McCoben his part for £16.1.0

Then the rents are steadily decreasing.

Aug. 11. Mrs. Hannah offers to take £225 or £200 and the subscriptions remaining due.

On the question whether the parish money (if lawful) shall be applied to pay the debt, three vote for it; one is nutral; one protests against taking the parish money.

Jan. 12. 1790. [Entries henceforth made in a beautiful hand] Resolved that the Register take the lock of the chapple doore and have a Key made to it, that the Doore may be kept Locks to keepe Horses and Cattle from going into the House and damaging it"

Ordered to apply at the next August Court for a commission to fix the bounds of that part of the Glebe Land whereon Thomas Lodd now lives, called Lock and Iron Stone Hills".

Aug. 1. The proceedings of the Convention of the Clergy met at being read for the better information of the Vestry now present, Mr. John Small was of opinion that he was excluded from acting as a Vestryman any longer, as he was a member of the Methodist Church and would not contribute to the support of any other and therefore resigned.

John Fowler appointed Register in place of Benj. Fish deceased.

Oct. 21. it appears that account of Rev. Walter McGowan has been fully settled with his Executor Wm. Stewart. A Judgment for £225 has been obtained by Mrs. Hannah ~~taken out~~

Dec. 6. Regester ordered to advertise for a commission to be taken out for the tracts "Lock" and Iron Stone Hill £5.2.1 pd Richard Cromwell for glass in Chapel windows.

Feb. 7. 1790. Ordered to repair the Vestry House, to amount of £12 or £15.

June 13. Charles S. Waters chosen Register at £4.10.0 per ann.

May 21. 1792. Richard Cromwell elected Delegate to represent the Parish in Convention [The first such entry]

Aug. 30 Regester ordered "to advertise in the Baltimore and Annapolis papers for a Clergyman to be continued for six weeks.