Mr. William Rogers having requested this Vestry to allow his Wife to be buried in the Church the Copy of whose Lett. hereafter follows, his Request is granted provided there can be room found therein and not disturb those already buried in it.

Copy of Mr. Willm. Rogers his Lett.

Gentl.

It was the earnest Request of my Wife in her last minutes to be buried in the Church, and if possible in the same Grave or near where Govr. Seymore was interr'd, The which will oblige

Gent.

Your very humble Servant.
William Rogers.

To the Gent. of the Vestry of St. Anne's Parish in Annapolis
May 23th 1725.

Order'd, That the Church Wardens of this Parish inspect into the four Publick pews to enquire who have, and are willing to pay; and who have not, and will not, that Room may be made for those who are desirous to contribute their Quotas. And if any person great or small shall refuse to pay, and still will continue notwithstanding to sit in any of them, they are desired to give their Reasons for so doing to the next Vestry or quit their pretensions.

To the Gent. of the Vestry of St. Anne's Parish in Annapolis.

Gent.

We whose names are hereunto Subscribed beg your favrs. to allow us if possible a seat or part of a seat for us to sit in at Divine Service, for want whereof, we have often been oblig'd to be absent from thence, your Compliance will much oblige

Gent. Your very humble Servants
George Thorp
Nath.l Palmer & his wife
James Syms & his wife.

This present Vestry taking the above into their Consideration come to this Resolution, That if those who have been at first admitted into any of the Publick Seats have a mind to continue and pay their Quotas according to a Late order of Vestry, they may so continue; And if there happen to be any Vacancy the above persons have priviledge to sit therein according to their Request, paying the usual Quota.
