DANGERS OF THE DEEP

By RUTH EDWARDS

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure

When Morris heard that the freedom of camp life was to be disturbed by the advent of girls, unlike the right good captain of the Pinafore, he was guilty of a "big, big D."

Holbrook and Seaton looked sheepish. They and Morris were a trio of Yale seniors who had slipped away from New Haven in the interlude between the closing of exams and commencement for one last jollification at Seaton's summer home on the sound before they went their several ways. To him and Holbrook the plan had seemed rather a nice one.

"Oh, come, Bill," said Holbrook. "They're awfully jolly girls. It won't be so bad."

"Oh, of course not," returned Morris scornfully. "I know how it will be. We'll have to wear collars and shave and do the 'sassiety' act. They'll think it's too cold to go in swimming, and they won't know how anyway, and they'll expect to be taught. They'll insist upon going sailing, and they'll scratch all the paint off the deck with their high heeled shoes, and they'll scream and get seasick if it's rough. And the chaperon will corner me and bore me stiff asking me about my studies and whether I'm any relation to somebody or other of the same name who graduated in '67. No, thank you! None of it in mine."

"Well, you needn't see them unless you want," remarked Seaton soothingly. "They'll be up at the big house, and they won't bother you down here at the lodge. You may as well be decent about it. They're only going to stay two or three days anyway."

"Humph! Well, if they butt in like this they'll have to take me as I am. S'pose you fellows will dress up in glad rags. I'm going fishing."

Accordingly when Holbrook and Seaton, shaven and shorn, in immaculate negligee shirts, collars and white ducks, came down to the pier to help the girls and their youthful chaperon ashore Billy was discovered in a ragged flannel shirt, open at the throat, a pair of old golf trousers, rubber boots and a three days' growth of beard, engrossed in manipulating a long fish pole off the neighboring rocks. Holbrook and Seaton marched off up to the house, carrying dress suit cases, and Morris saw them no more that night.

"DO YOU REALLY WANT ME?" SHE CRIED.

He cooked his solitary supper, smoked his solitary pipe and turned in early. With a feeling of righteousness, he woke at 6 in the sweet, cool June morning and, getting into his bathing suit, proceeded down to the dock for his morning plunge. Holbrook and Seaton were still sleeping the sleep of the just and the midnight rollicker.

The tide was high, the air filled with the sweetness of honeysuckle and musical with the call of birds. A girl in a red bathing suit stood at the end of the dock in the early sunlight.

Morris was in time to see her throw her bare arms above her head, spring lightly upward and descend in a straight limbed dive into the rippling water.

"Great Scott!" he remarked to himself. "That was a corking dive all right."

He waited until she appeared on the surface, swimming on her side, and then, with a run and a leap, was after her. She glanced back as she heard his splash and smiled as he same up blinking. "Good morning," she called.

"Better not go too far to the east," he called back. "The tide's running pretty swift."

"Thanks," she answered and swept away with long, even strokes in the opposite direction.

Morris caught up with her. "Water's pretty cold this morning," he remarked affably.

"Cold as your welcome yesterday," she answered, showing her white teeth. "But I like it. It's exhilarating."

She turned over on her back and floated contentedly. Morris was somewhat abashed at the slight ambiguity of her remarks.

Presently she swam toward the dock, and Morris saw her climb the slippery

TRADE MARK

THE leading farmers and canners through Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland speak in their praise, declaring them to be positively the cheapest, the safest, the best, to use. Once a trial, always a patron. Wouldn't it be a good idea for you to try them?

FOR HAY—

Top dress your grass this month. We have a goods that works wonders for this purpose. Try it and the cost per acre will cost less than you imagine.

ASPARAGUS—

Are you going to do anything to it this spring? If so, we have the goods. It has Nitrate of Soda and Fish as the source of ammonia, and runs high in Potash and Phosphoric Acid. Some of the finest asparagus grown in the county is with this goods. Ask Mr. James Bell, Mr. Klinefelter and Mr. Crew what it did for them.

PEACH TREES—

It looks now as though we were going to have a crop of fruit, and as many orchards have been dug up don't you think it would be a good idea to feed your trees with our Fruit Grower, as it has given such universal satisfaction? Then, too, it will only cost you about two cents per tree to dress them with this goods. We have scores of testimonials concerning it.

FOR CORN—

IRONSHIRE, MD.,

MESSRS. T. R. HUBBARD & Son—GENTLEMEN: I had heard so much of your Corn Phosphate that I determined to give it a trial. I had two pieces of ground, the quality of which was as near alike as possible. I used yours on 2,045 hills, and H. & T.'s "B" on 2,719. Your plot had nearly 700 bills less and gave within ½ busdel (actual measurement) as much Corn as the other, and it cost $7.00 more per ton than yours. I am frank to say yours is the best Corn Phosphate I ever tried.

Resp., W. H. BASSETT.

You fertilize your wheat, why not your corn? It will pay. We have many customers who use it year after year. Such gentlemen as I. R. Leaverton use it annually, and farmers like Ham L. Crew have used it for 10 or 12 years, and J. Alfred Bramble says it pays him handsomely. And where will you find better or more successful farmers than these gentlemen?

We have one man in Delaware already ordered 70 tons. We have two more n Maryland who have their orders booked now for 20 tons each, and so on we could give them to you by the score.

FOR TOMATOES—

Well, you have heard about our Peerless. Mr. Jacob Shriley says it is the best goods he ever saw for tomatoes. Mr. Stewart Graham writes where Peerless went alongside another goods; one looked like manured and the other as if it had none, and that Peerless yielded over one-third more tomatoes.

Mr. B. H. Moore writes: "I used Peerless on 2 acres, sold 27½ tons at 12 cts. per basket; netted me $198.40." D. F. Loose says one ton netted him $96.00 more than another ton of $18.00 goods alongside- C. R. Dashiel says he would have it if it cost $50.00 per ton. Smith, Rouse & Webster, the great canners, say they never heard of goods spoken of more highly. We can furnish hundreds of testimonials. Many have told us their yield from it was four and five tons more per acre.

☞Now, if you want to sow OATS or top dress your STRAWBERRIES, plant SWEET POTATOES or need a goods for TRUCK, or want anything in the FERTILIZER line, please call on or correspond with us before making your purchases.

Very truly yours,

WILBUR W. HUBBARD,

KIDNEY DISEASES CAUSE ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL DEATHS.

When the Kidneys fail to perform their functions properly by not straining out the poisonous waste matter from the blood as it passes through them, the poisons are carried by the circulation to every part of the body, deranging the different organs. This causes heart trouble, stomach trouble, sluggish liver and a host of other ills, all due to deranged Kidneys.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

corrects irregularities and cures Kidney and Bladder diseases in every form, tones up the whole system, and the diseases that have resulted from disordered Kidneys disappear, because the cause has been removed. Commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at the first sign of danger. Do not risk having Bright's Disease or Diabetes.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert G. Burke, Elnora, Saratoga Co., N. Y., writes:—I am glad to have an opportunity of telling what magnificent results I have had from using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE after having tried other advertised medicines and several physicians. Before I began it I had to get up from 12 to 20 times each night to relieve my bladder. I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired that I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. In fact, I was so badly used up that I had given up hope of living when I was urged by a friend to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the superfluous flesh had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Kidney trouble. My friends were surprised that I was cured, as they all thought I was going to die. Every few days some one comes from miles away to learn the name of the wonderful medicine that cured me of Bright's Disease, and not one that has tried it has failed to be benefitted.

Two Sizes, 50 Cents and $1.00.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY ALL DEALERS.
