Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Georgia Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

KENT COUNTIANS TO ATTEND

The International Christian Endeavor Convention in Baltimore.

The great International Christian Endeavor Convention, which meets in Baltimore from July 5 to 10, is but a few days off, and it will doubtless prove to be the most successful and largest session ever held.

Accommodations are being obtained for at least 40,000 delegates. Arrangements are now being obtained to supply every evangelical church pulpit in the city with a visiting minister on the Sunday of the convention. The Saturday of the convention week, will be devoted to excursions to such places as Washington, Tolchester, Gettysburg and Annapolis.

Friday of the convention week, will practically be "Maryland Day," for the State and denominational rallies are to be held on that day. The State rallies will be held in the morning from 10.30 to 12 30 p. m., while the denominational rallies are to be held in the afternoon. The Marylanders will assemble in the Lyric, and at least 8,000 Endeavorers of the State are espected to be present. An interesting program has been provided, and it will doubtless be one of the best features of the convention. Addresses are to be made by Revs. John Timothy Stone and Oliver Huckle. The mammoth choir of 2400 voices, under Mr. Richard A. Harris, will be present, and render some grand music. This chorus alone will be worth hearing. Every one of the 280 societies in the state are expected to be represented. A number of delegates will attend from this county.

The finance committee, which has in charge the distribution of the convention stock at the rate of $1 per share, is extremely anxious that every Endeavorer in the State should be a contributor. The purchase of even one share of the stock, entitles the holder to the privileges of the convention, an official badge, official program, map of the city, a printed report of the convention proceedings, official guide and souvenir book, and a beautifully engraved certificate of stock signed by the general committee of 1905.
