ELECTION COST HEARST $256,370

Most of the Quarter of a Million Went to His League—Hughes Spent Only $618.

ALBANY, Nov. 16. — William R. Hearst, filed with the Secretary of State this afternoon a certificate showing that he spent $256,370.22 in his campaign for governor. Of that amount he gave J. G. Follansbee, treasurer of the Independence League, $198,870.22; paid W. J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, $57,000, and expended $500 for traveling expenses.

Governor-elect Hughes spent $618.55. His traveling expenses were $108.46; telegrams, $8.27; postage, $12.94; stenographer's services, $11.90; private secretary, Raymond M. Lowe, $208.33; Charles W. Littlefield; private secretary, $150, and William D. Black, assistant private secretary, $18.55.

Representative-elect Peter A. Porter, of Niagara Falls, spent $3,265 in defeating Representative James W. Wadsworth, who expended $3,806.

Edward S. Clinch, candidate for Supreme Court Justice, spent $100, and Luke D. Stapleton $1,015. Judge Otto Rosalsky says he spent nothing.

Senator Owen Cassidy, of Watkins, spent $794 and Senator-elect Stanislaus P Franchot, brother of State Superintendant of Public Works, N. V. V. Franchot, expended $1,998.

Assemblyman Stanley, of New York, spent $1,017.

Lieutenant-Governor M. Linn Bruce did not make the usual $1,000 contribution to the Republican State Committee and his only expenses were for himself and amounted to $247.42.

WOLF "BOY CONGRESSMAN."

A Remarkably Rapid Rise Of The Third District Winner.

From a newsboy to a successful lawyer and a seat in Congress at the age of 27 is the career of Harry B. Wolf, the Democratic Congressman elect from the Third district. Mr. Wolf was jubilant over his election and was congratulated by hundreds of friends who called at his home, 131 Aisquith street, Baltimore.

Although he had expected to win, the victory was by far more decisive than even his most sanguine friends could make him anticipate.

"The victory," said Mr. Wolf, "is the result of the people's desire to secure a representative who will oppose the greed of corporate interests and of the untiring efforts of my many friends."

Not only will Mr. Wolf be the youngest Congressman who has ever represented Maryland, but it is said he will be one of the youngest members who has served in Congress.

The Constitution of the United States says a Representative shall be 25 years old. Mr. Wolf was 26 years old last June.

Born in East Baltimore of poor parentage, Mr. Wolf, by perseverance and thrift, has rapidly climbed the ladder of success. When a lad he sold newspapers on the streets. Later he secured a position as office boy in a newspaper office. As a lad he decided he wanted to study law, and every spare moment found him studying. Upon reaching his teens Mr. Wolf got a place in a lawyer's office and took private tuition and attended night schools. He entered the University of Maryland Law School and was graduated with a good average.

He possesses a remarkable personal magnetism. His arguments and pleas in court attracted attention. He has a voice as clear and as sharp as a trumpet. In a few years he has built up a lucrative practice.

Using the words of Mr. Wolf he has been a Democrat "since he could talk," and upon reaching his majority he took an active interest in Democratic politics. This is the first political office to which he has ever aspired.

Mr. Wolf conducted an active campaign and met the voters of his district by calling on them at the shops and factories in the day and meeting them at their homes in the evenings.

Numerous ward and district meetings were held in his behalf by the Democratic organizations. It is said Mr. Wolf's handshake won him a number of votes.

A remarkable feature of his election is that the district, which is considered normally Democratic, has been represented by Republican Congressmen for the last 10 years. Dr. W. W. Booz was elected in the Republican landslide in 1896, and Congressman Wachter has been elected for the last four terms.

Mr. Wolf is married and has one son.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our mother Mrs. Annie E. Bryan the wife of Mr. Joshua H. Bryan, died Oct. 21, 1906, age 47 years.

A home has been stricken with sorrow.
A loved one has been taken away.
And grief throws its gloom o'er the morrow
And darkens the face of its day.

To all the dear loved ones now dwelling
In the home which shall know her no more
As they will be constantly telling
Of the mother thats gone on before.

She was thoughtful loving, tender,
With us each and every one.
Here she suffered, but is now rejoicing
Her joy in Heaven has just begun.

To each may this sorrowful warning
Be heeded as God's loving call,
And clad in Christ's beauteous adorning
Arise from the gloom one and all.

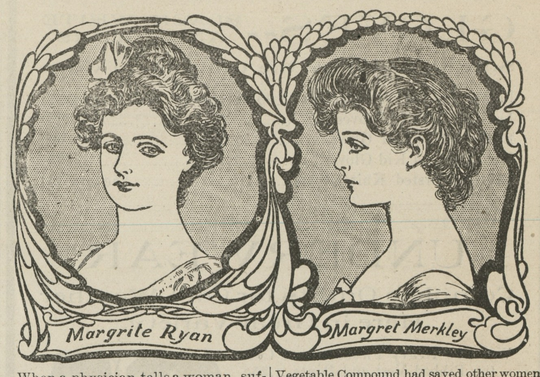
OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.



When a physician tells a woman, suffering from female trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for just such operations!

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but such cases are much rarer than is generally supposed, because a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors had said an operation must be performed. In fact, up to the point where the knife must be used to secure instant relief, this medicine is certain to help.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have escaped serious operations.

Margrite Ryan, Treasurer of St. Andrew's Society, Indianapolis, Ind., writes of her cure as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot find words to express my thanks for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me. The doctor said I could not get well unless I had an operation for the trouble from which I suffered. I knew I could not stand the strain of an operation and made up my mind I would be an invalid for life. Hearing how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had saved other women from serious operations I decided to try it, and in less than four months I was entirely cured; and words fail to express my thankfulness."

Miss Margret Merkley, of 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps, bearing-down pains, and an irritable disposition compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said that I had a serious female trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation as my only hope. To this I strongly objected—and I decided as a last resort to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To my surprise the ulceration healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared, and I am once more strong, vigorous and well; and I cannot express my thanks for what it has done for me."

Serious feminine troubles are steadily on the increase among women—and before submitting to an operation every woman should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for advice.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been curing the worst forms of female complaints, all functional troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement, weakness, irregularities, indigestion and nervous prostration. Any woman who could read the many grateful letters on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office would be convinced of the efficiency of her advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
