"Baltimore, October 27th., 1911.

Police Commissioners,

Court - House, City.

Gentlemen:-

Believing that good work is at all times deserving of commendation, I desire to call your attention to the arrest of a colored boy who was, up until to-day, in my employ. This boy has never even acted in a way to cause suspicion and Officers James H. McIntire and George W. Kaiss, both of the Western District, arrested him and recovered seven pairs of our shoes and one pair of arch supporters that was also my property, which the boy had stolen. Sergeant Mark Scholl was also very instrumental in recovering the goods and I want to congratulate you and thank them for the way in which this case was handled.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL HESS."
