AN ACT to repeal Sections 11, 14 and 48 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 11, 14 and 48 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

11. After the judges and clerks are appointed, the Board of Supervisors shall immediately and before the first day of August in each year, give notice of the names of all such judges, and shall, before the first day of October, give notice of the names of all such clerks, and in every case the residence and the precincts for which they are selected, by causing the same in the several counties to be published once a week for two successive weeks in two or more newspapers in each county, except Howard County, where the Supervisors of Election may publish the same in one newspaper, one of which papers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of a majority of such supervisors; and if no newspaper be published in such county, then by posting such notice in three of the most public places in such county; and in Baltimore city to be published on two successive days in all the daily newspapers in said city which shall be willing to publish the same at their current rates for advertising; said Board, in appointing judges and clerks, and in the notice thereof, shall designate the persons intended by them to represent the political parties respectively. It shall be the duty of the said Board to examine promptly into any complaints which may be preferred to them in writing against the fitness or qualifications of any persons so appointed judge or clerk and to remove any such judge or clerk when upon inquiring they shall find to be unfit or incapable. The Board shall forthwith appoint persons in the manner hereinbefore prescribed to fill all vacancies in the office of judge or clerk, and shall immediately make public the names of such persons so appointed by advertisement as nearly as may be, as hereinbefore provided for the original appointments. The record of appointments to fill vacancies shall be kept in the books hereinbefore prescribed in Section 9, which books, with the recommendation and protests made to them, and all their other records and papers shall always be open to the inspection of the public. After notice as aforesaid of their appointments, the judges and clerks shall again be notified to appear at the office of said Board, and shall then and there [illegible] taking the oath of office befo[illegible] of said supervisors receive the [illegible] missions. The oath of off[illegible] be in writing and subscrib[illegible] each one in a book to be kept for the purpose by the supervisors, and shall be in substance as follows: Residing at..... in the city (or county) of.....in the State of Maryland, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a legal voter in the..... precinct of the ....ward of the city (or.....district of....county) in the said State, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of Maryland and support the Constitution and laws thereof, and that I will faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of an officer of registration and judge of election (or clerk of election) for the.....precinct of the .....ward of the city (or district) of.....county, in the State of Maryland, according to the best of my ability, and I do further swear (or affirm) that I will not attempt to ascertain, save in cases and in the manner on which I am authorized by law so to do, for what candidate or candidates any person shall vote or has voted on any question which may be or may have been submitted to the vote of the people, and if such knowledge shall be acquired by me, I will not, directly or indirectly, by word or act, divulge or reveal the same or aid in doing so, save when I may be required to do so by law in some legal proceeding.

14. Said Board of Supervisors shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration, and of revision thereof, and of elections in each precinct of such county or city, by handbills set up in the most public places in such precinct, and also in the counties, by advertisement in two newspapers (one of which newspapers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of said Supervisors) of general circulation therein, except in Howard county, where the Supervisors of Election may publish in one newspaper the notice above required, and in the City of Baltimore, by advertisement in all the daily newspapers which will publish the same at their current rate of advertising. And the Sheriff of Baltimore city and of each county shall no longer publish such notices of election. Said board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections, and they shall have charge of and make provision for all elections, general, special, local, municipal, State and county, for all others of every description, to be held in such city or county, or any part thereof, at any time; all questions shall be decided by a majority of the board, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Article; provided, however, that in any incorporated city or town in this State (other that the city of Baltimore) in which the municipal or charter elections thereof are now regulated by the Public Local Laws of the State, the conduct of such municiple or charter elections shall continue to be so regulated as heretofore, and such Public Local Laws shall continue in force therein.

Section 48. At least eight days before an election to fill any public office the Supervisors of Election of each county and in the city of Baltimore shall cause to be published in two or more newspapers within such county, except in Howard county, where the Supervisors of Election may publish in one newspaper, and in all the daily papers published in said city which will publish the same at the current rate for advertising the nominations to office which have been filed with or certified to them under the provisions of this Article, if in any county there be but one newspaper published, publication in such one newspaper shall be sufficient; they shall make not less than two such publications in each of such newspapers before the day of election, and one of such publications in each newspaper shall be upon the last day upon which said newspaper is issued before the day of election. Such publication shall be made in newspapers devoted to the dissemination of general news; and the two newspapers selected shall, if possible, represent the political parties which at the last preceding election cast the largest and next largest number of votes. The list of nominations published by the Supervisors of Elections shall be arranged, so far as practicable, in the order and form in which they are to be printed upon the ballots.

Section 2. Section 48 as enacted in this Act shall not apply to Anne Arundel, Calvert, Charles, Dorchester Kent, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Somerset, Talbot and Worcester counties.

The aforegoing provisions of this Section shall apply to Baltimore city, Baltimore, Wicomico, Carroll, Washington, Allegany, Cecil, Montgomery, Howard, Caroline, Harford, Frederick and Garrett counties, and the following provisions of this Section shall apply only to the following counties: Anne Arundel, Calvert, Charles, Dorchester, Kent, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Somerset, Talbot and Worcester.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 3, 4 and 5 of chapter 737 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1908, relating to the subject of primary elections in the State of Maryland, and all and singular the several and various provisions of said three sections of said Act, be and the same is and are hereby repealed, and that in lieu and stead of the said three sections of said Act and the provisions thereof and thereunder enacted, new and other sections of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Elections," are hereby enacted, to be known, respectively, as sections 160-A, 160B, 160C, 160D, 160E, 160F, 160G, 160H, 160I, 160J, 160K, 160L, 160M, 160N, 160O, 160P. 160Q, 160R. 169S, 160T, 160U and 160V, to come in after section 160 of said Article 33, under sub-title "Primary Elections," regulating primary elections for all candidates for public office of certain political parties in and for Baltimore city and the several counties of the State, and to elect delegates to legislature, district, city and State conventions, and all members of managing bodies of certain political parties in and for Baltimore city and the several counties of the State, and of all precinct, ward, city and county executives or executive committees, in the State of Maryland, and to be and read, respectively as follows::

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

160A. Political parties which, at the General Election held on November 2, 1909, in the State of Maryland, or which at any future General Election next preceding any primary election to be held hereunder, as shall have polled ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in the State at such or any such General Election, shall hereafter nominate all their candidates for office in and for Baltimore city and the several counties of the State and shall elect all delegates to county, legislative district, city or State conventions and all members of managing bodies in said political parties, in and for Baltimore city and the several counties of the State, and all precinct, ward, city and county executives, or executive committees, whenever the political usage provides for such executive committee or any of the same, by means of primary elections, conducted under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and not otherwise, except as herein provided, and the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections shall not print on the official ballot to be voted at any general or special election to be hereafter held in the name or names of any such candidate or candidates for election in Baltimore city or any of the counties of the State of any of said parties who shall not be so nominated, and whose nomination shall not be certified to them, or to the Secretary of State, as having been so nominated.

Provided, That the provisions of this sub-title requiring the nomination of candidates by direct vote shall not apply to the nomination of such candidates for county offices. State Senator and Members of the House of Delegates in the Counties of Howard, Somerset, Washington, Worcester and Wicomico, except as hereinafter provided, but such candidates shall be selected by a County Convention, delegates to which shall be selected in all respects as provided for in this sub-title, and the nominations of such candidates by such Convention shall be duly certified by the Chairman and Secretary of such Convention to the Board of Election Supervisors of said county, and it shall be the duty of said Supervisors to place the names of such candidates upon the official ballot in the manner prescribed by the general election laws of this State, and provided further, That at the first primary election held under the provisions of the foregoing proviso in each of said named counties, the official ballots of the respective political parties participating therein shall contain squares, properly designated, in which the voters of such parties may by such cross-mark in such squares indicate their preference for or against primaries in their respective parties by direct vote for candidates for county offices, for the State Senate and for Members of the House of Delegates; and provided further that [illegible] the majority of the votes [illegible] by [illegible]ther of such parties in a[illegible] [illegible]ty so excepted shall ir[illegible] [illegible]erence for direct prima[illegible] in that event, each [illegible] by such direct [illegible] ence has been so expres[illegible] primaries shall ever t[illegible] removed from the class[illegible] counties in this section [illegible] mentioned.

All such candidates for s[illegible] and all such delegates, [illegible] bodies, executives and execut[illegible] mittees shall be nominated, [illegible] and chosen by the direct vote [illegible] duly registered voters belongi[illegible] or acting with such parties, re[illegible] tively, in every precinct, ward, c[illegible] cilmanic, legislative or other elec[illegible] districts in Baltimore city, and a[illegible] in the several counties of the Sta[illegible] of Maryland, respectively, and i[illegible] each and every election, precinct an[illegible] election district of each of said cou[illegible] ties of the State of Maryland, resp[illegible] tively, it being the intent and p[illegible] pose of this Act that all such ca[illegible] dates for public office, all delegates [illegible] to such party conventions and all managing bodies, executives or executive committees of any such political party, whenever the political party usage provides for such executives or executive committees, shall be nominated as aforesaid by the direct vote of the duly registered voters belonging to or acting with such parties, respectively, in Baltimore city, or any precinct, ward, councilmanic or legislative district thereof, or in any county or district or precinct thereof, as the case with respect to any public office, or place or position aforesaid, may be; and that no candidate for such public office, delegate to such convention, party executive or executive committee, or managing body of any such political party, as aforesaid, in and for Baltimore city or the several counties of the State, shall be chosen or elected by any such political convention or otherwise than by the duly registered voters belonging to or acting with said political parties, as aforesaid.

It shall be lawful for all such parties aforesaid to elect and hold such party conventions which shall have full power and authority, in all respects whatsoever, to act in respect to all matter appertaining to the organization, maintenance, conduct, affairs and interests of the party, in Baltimore city or in any county of the State, saving and excepting only the choice, selection, nomination or appointment of party candidates for such public office, delegates to such conventions or party executives or managing bodies or executive committees, of any sort whatever, in and for Baltimore city and the several counties of the State.

Provided, That the candidates of such political parties for Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller and Clerk of the Court of Appeals of the State shall be nominated in the manner prescribed in this Aritcle by State Conventions, and such State Convention shall also have the power to select, in such manner as they may determine, delegates to National Conventions and Presidential Electors and the governing bodies of such political parties for the State but shall have no power to select or appoint committees or governing bodies of any character for Baltimore city nor for any division thereof nor for the counties of the State.

160B. Said primary elections by the political parties aforesaid shall be annually held throughout the State, including Baltimore city, on a day to be fixed by any agreement between the governing bodies of said parties for the State not later than the first Monday of September of each year. All such political parties, as aforesaid, shall hold their several primaries upon the same day. In case such governing bodies for the State shall fail to agree on an earlier date for holding such primary election, said primary elections shall be held on the first Monday of September in each year. Notice shall be given of times and places of holding said primary elections by the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections in the city of Baltimore and of the counties of this State, respectively, in the same way precisely as notice is required to be given for municipal and county elections held under the provisions of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws.

160C. There shall be at every primary election in the city of Baltimore and in each county a voting place in each election precinct of each ward and of each election district, or in each election district which may not be divided into election precincts; and each of said voting places shall be selected by the Board of Supervisors of Elections in Baltimore city and in the counties, as provided in section 11 of this Article, with respect to general, municipal and county elections, and furnished in the same manner as at a general election.

160D. All such primary elections shall be conducted under the control of the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections in Baltimore city and the counties, respectively, by the judges and clerks of elections appointed by them under the provisions of said Article 33, for the conduct of elections held thereunder in Baltimore city and in the several counties of the State, and in the same manner as far as may be applicable as general elections are conducted under said Article 33, except as may be hereinafter otherwise provided.

160E. As many different sets of official ballots shall be printed and supplied by the Board of Supervisors of Election at each polling place, and as many ballot boxes shall be used at each polling place, as there are seperate party nominations, delegates, executives, or managing or executive bodies, to be voted for; and to prevent voters belonging to or acting with one political party from inadvertently or intentionally casting their ballot for the candidate for nomination for office, or election as delegate to any convention, or as executive or members of an executive or managing committee, of any other party, and to facilitate its being promptly detected if so cast, the ballots of the several parties, shall be printed upon opaque paper of different colors. to be determined by the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections: [illegible] until after the next general [illegible]tion in the counties, every [illegible]ffering to vote at a primary [illegible]hall be required to state
