msa_sc2915_scm1012-0556 ©Maryland State Archives

Adjourned until the first Monday in May next and that Berriah Mayburg take under his Care the Church Plate and Furniture.

April 1. 1782 The Vestry and Inhabitants of St. Ann's Parish, met to choose Vestrymen and Church Wardens for the ensuing year according to Act of Assembly.

Present

Allen Quynn
Joseph Eastman } Vestrymen
William Faris

James Lootell } Church
Berriah Mayburg } Wardens.

They proceeded to Ballot out two of the Vestry and upon examination of the Ballots Nicholas Worthington and William Goldsmith were left out and in their room Capt. Berriah Mayburg and Col. James Lootell were elected Vestrymen for the ensuing year.

Philemon Warfield and Absalom Ridgely were unanimously chosen Church Wardens in the Room of James Lootell and Berriah Mayburg

Alexander Gray appointed Register Clerk and Sexton.

Vestry adjourns to Monday next.

Monday April 8. 1782.

The Vestry having met according to Adjournment Colonel James Lootell Capt. Berriah Mayburg were qualified as Vestrymen Absalom Ridgely as Church Warden and Alex. Gray as Register by their taking the Oath to Government and the Oath of Office required by the Act for the establishment of Select Vestries. The Minute Book not being to be had then could not proceed to further Business. Ordered their Clerk demand the Minute Book from Mr. Rankin who then had it in possession and adjourned to Wednesday next.

Wednesday April 10. 1782.

Present

April 21st. 1783. being Easter Monday

Were Present.

Allen Quynn
William Faris
Joseph Eastman
Francis Fairbrother
Berriah Mayburg
James Lootell.

Allen Quynn & William Faris were left out of the Vestry and were appointed Church Wardens James Brice Thomas Johnson junior and Philemon Warfield were appointed Vestrymen.

On Easter Monday 12th. April 1784.

of the Vestry were Present

Joseph Eastman
Francis Fairbrother
James Lootell } Vestrymen
James Brice
Thomas Johnson

Allen Quynn } Church
William Faris } Wardens.

Who with the Inhabitants present entitled to vote proceeded agreeable to the Act of Assembly to Ballot out two of the Vestry on examing the Ballots it appeared that Joseph Eastman and Francis Fairbrother were left out. They then proceeded to fill up the Vacancies when Thomas Hyde and James Ringgold were chosen Vestrymen and John Callahan and Frederick Green Churchwardens in place of Allen Quynn and