msa_sc2915_scm1012-0579 ©Maryland State Archives

The parishioners proceeding to vote out four Vestrymen, Messrs. Charles Wallace, Frederick Grammar, Joseph Brewer & James Wheteroft were found to be voted out: they then proceeded to fill up the vacancies, & Messrs. Frederick Grammar, Joseph Brewer, James Wheteroft & Thomas Callahan, upon examination of the ballots, were found to be elected.

The Vestry then appointed Messrs. John Callahan & Samuel Ridout church wardens for the ensuing year.

Ordered, that the register notify their appointments to these gentlemen.

Adjourned without a day.

At a Meeting of the Vestry and parishioners of Saint Ann's Parish on Easter Monday being the 11th of April 1803 were present:

Richard Owens
Frederick Grammar
James Wheteroft } Vestrymen
Jesse Ray
John Randall

The parishioners proceeded to vote out four of the Vestrymen when Frederick Grammar Thomas Harwood Joseph Brewer and Richard Owens were voted out, they then proceeded to fill up the vacancies and Mr. John Mc Dowell Mr. Samuel Ridout, Mr. James Mackubbin and Mr. Samuel Harvey Howard upon the examination of the Ballots were found to be duly elected, and the said parishioners proceeded to elect a Vestryman in the room of Thomas Callahan appointed on Easter Monday 1802 and who refused to serve or qualify, as directed by law, and Frederick Grammar, was upon examination of the ballots declared duly elected.

The Vestrymen then proceeded to elect two persons

& Church Wardens to serve until Easter Monday in the year 1804 & on Examination of the Ballots Mr. James Williams & Mr. William Alexander were declared duly elected.

Adjourned until Monday the 30th of May next.

Monday May 30th 1803 The Vestry of Saint Ann's Parish met agreeably to their Adjournment.

present The Reverend Ralph Higginbotham

James Wheteroft
John Randall
Frederick Grammar } Vestrymen
Jesse Ray

Samuel H. Howard & Samuel Ridout appeared and qualified as Vestrymen agreeable to their appointment, and also James Williams qualified as Churchwarden.

They then proceeded to appoint a Vestryman in the room of John Mc Dowell who refused to serve when Burton Wheteroft was elected a Vestryman.

Application was made on behalf of Mr. John Woodbury to be organist to Saint Ann's Church, when it was Resolved that the said John Woodbury be appointed Organist to Saint Ann's Church, the said John Woodbury to depend on such subscription as he may obtain & collect for his services this Vestry will not make themselves answerable for any salary or sum he may require for his services.

The Vestry then proceeded to elect a Lay Delegate to attend the convention of the Episcopal Church to be held at Baltimore on Wednesday next on behalf of this Parish, when James Williams was unanimously elected.

The Vestry Adjourned without day Test. Robt. Denny Register.